Message From the President

These opening years of the 21st century are a time marked by increased worldwide violence, uncertain economies and unprecedented change. The full impact of globalization is just beginning to be felt, and it signals daunting changes for us all. But for the church empowered and led by the Spirit, the words of Jehovah God recorded by the prophet Isaiah give hope confidence.

“I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me; I was found by those who did not seek me. To a nation that did not call on my name, I said, Here am I, here am I.” (Isaiah 65:1, NIV)

The missionary God we serve is going to demonstrate his redeeming power in places we never dreamed possible and through means that will astound us all. At AGTS we anticipate the journey into exciting challenges, because the task of developing leaders for this unfolding harvest is why this seminary exists.

AGTS is not engaged in educating students for a good job, success or social status. We are forming Pentecostal leaders who are able to call people to repentance, create communities that offer a glimpse of what Kingdom life really looks like, and make disciples of all nations. Our mission gets its impetus from God’s mission.

We want to stimulate, strengthen and develop more Pentecostal leaders to win the world to Christ. The men and women we train embody a hunger for God, integrity of character, confidence in proclamation and creativity in ministry. We are ready and willing to train Pentecostal leaders for the third millennium.

Byron D. Klaus, D.Min.
President

The Faculty at AGTS

AGTS faculty members are more than just scholars—they are Pentecostal believers who are committed to serving the church through scholarship, teaching, on-going ministry in the church and formative relationships with students. We like to say that being a both/and person—committed to both the academy and the church—is a requirement for all AGTS administrators and faculty members. As you get to know them, you will catch their passion for understanding and carrying out ministry in the power of the Spirit.

The Master of Divinity Degree

The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree at AGTS is a cutting edge program designed to enable:

- A deep grasp of God’s mission in the world and its development throughout history to the present
- Skills for interpreting the Scriptures
- Appreciation for and experience of the empowering of God’s Spirit in transformation and ministry
- Rigorous reflection on Christian truths
- Holistic leadership for engaging contemporary challenges
- Effective evangelism, disciple-making and meeting of community needs
- Practical competencies needed for ministry

At AGTS, the M.Div. degree requires 78 credits of study. It has been streamlined to enable students to begin or resume full-time ministry one semester sooner than traditional 90 credit programs. Course options in fulfilling requirements enable students to customize their program to fit their needs and interests. Thirteen concentrations allow students to specialize in a particular area, if they wish.

AGTS offers a distinctive two-track M.Div.: one for those who have graduated from a secular college and another for those who have had substantial undergraduate work in Bible, theology and/or ministry. The first track eliminates the frustration of keeping up with students who already have a background in theological studies. The second track eliminates the frustration of repeating courses already taken in undergraduate studies.

The M.Div. combines the biblical-theological emphasis of the M.A. in Theological Studies with the ministry relevance of the M.A. in Christian Ministries. It more thoroughly equips students for ministry, and—for those interested—future studies such as the D.Min. or Ph.D.

Students planning to enter a Ph.D. program will profit from taking an additional 12 credits in their field of interest.

Those with limited experience in ministry leadership must take at least one practicum as part of their electives.
M.Div. Degree Components and Requirements

1. All core courses are required.
2. If a core course has been successfully completed with a grade of C or higher as an undergraduate, the student may substitute an alternative course. (Several cores define our educational vision and do not have alternatives.)
3. Alternative courses may be freely taken in the place of advanced courses.
4. Six credits of pre-seminary or basic Greek is required. If not taken in college, students must take it during their studies. Since this will enhance the students’ study of the New Testament, we recommend taking Greek 1A & 1B during the summer (July-August) preceding the students’ first fall semester, if possible. These courses must be completed within 12 months from the beginning of studies at AGTS and are prerequisites for Greek exegesis courses. During the fall and spring semesters, these are offered as independent studies courses on DVD for those who find this more convenient.

The training of chaplains for service in military and other institutional settings has been a high priority for AGTS since our founding in 1972. As a result, AGTS has a very large number of graduates serving in chaplaincy positions and a wonderful reputation in the U.S. armed forces. We train more military chaplains than any seminary in the United States, and the large group of chaplaincy candidates at AGTS creates a community of learning that is unique and ideal for creating a network of relationships that will persist for decades of future ministry. This track provides a course of studies that is specifically designed to prepare chaplains for the wide range of duties and skills required in military/institutional ministry.

Graduation Requirements

In addition to the general requirements for graduation, a Field Education Research Project course will be required toward the close of the student’s course work.

Biblical Language Requirements

The M.Div. degree program requires that six credits of advanced biblical languages be taken at AGTS. Introductory coursework in NT Greek is a prerequisite for M.Div. students and cannot be applied to the degree. To satisfy the biblical language requirement, students who have not taken any biblical Greek language study in their undergraduate programs must complete six credits of 500-level Greek (BGR 530 and BGR 531) within the first 12 months of enrollment at AGTS. Beyond Greek IA and IB, students must take Inductive Studies in the Greek New Testament (BGR 611 and BGR 612) or six credits of any biblical languages, as long as they follow the required prerequisite sequences.
Master of Arts in Christian Ministries

The Master of Arts in Christian Ministries (M.A.C.M.) is a 48-hour professional studies degree designed to equip persons with competencies in biblical/theological reflection, to enhance participants’ ministry skills and to instill patterns of personal and professional growth in the program participants.

Those with limited experience in ministry leadership must take at least one practicum as part of their electives.

Degree Components and Requirements

The Master of Arts in Christian Ministries can be completed by any student regardless of the field of their undergraduate degree. A limited number of courses may be taken through directed research or distance learning (see Distance Learning Courses). The general requirements for graduation apply as well.

Master of Arts in Theological Studies

The Master of Arts in Theological Studies (M.A.T.S.) program is designed to provide advanced biblical and theological training for ministers who want to enhance their ministry in specialized areas such as teaching and church related writing. It is also designed to serve as an intermediate degree for further graduate programs in biblical and theological studies.

Degree Components and Requirements

The M.A.T.S. is a two-year program of study requiring 48 credits. However, applicants with a strong undergraduate program in religion may petition for Advanced Standing in the program, which could allow them to complete the program with 39 credits or approximately three semesters of study. See M.A.T.S. Advanced Standing below.

Students may choose from six concentrations: Biblical and Theological Studies, Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, Biblical Languages, Intercultural Theology, and Pentecostal and Charismatic Studies. The Intercultural Theology concentration is designed to provide advanced biblical and theological training for missionaries and ministers who want to enhance their ministry in an intercultural context in specialized areas such as leadership formation, theological education and church related writing. It is designed to serve as an intermediate degree for further graduate programs in biblical, theological and missiological studies.

In addition to the general requirements for graduation, graduation requirements for the M.A.T.S. program also include a supervised seminar-quality research paper (in BNT/BOT/MHT/PCS 646) and the submission of a portfolio containing copies of the student’s work demonstrating attainment of the learning outcomes in the program. (See the M.A.T.S. Program Manual.) A limited number of courses may be taken through directed research or distance learning (see Distance Learning Courses).

3 BGR 530 and 531 are prerequisites if pursuing advanced exegesis in Greek. If pursuing advanced exegesis in Hebrew, BHE 530 & 531 are prerequisites. Note: Concentration requires 9 hours in advanced language emphasis (in addition to prerequisites) and 6 hours of another language.

M.A.T.S. Advanced Standing

Students who have earned a significant number of credits in religious studies from approved colleges and universities may request exemption from certain required courses in the M.A.T.S. degree program, thus granting them Advanced Standing. Life experience does not qualify for advanced standing. (See registrar for further details.)

The following rules apply to M.A.T.S. Advanced Standing:

1. Advanced Standing cannot exceed nine credits.
2. Advanced Standing is considered for undergraduate courses with satisfactory parallel content, provided the equivalent collegiate courses are double the credit value of the seminary's courses. A minimum grade of B is required and the student must be able to demonstrate competency in subject matter by presentation of an Advanced Standing Portfolio for each course for which advanced standing is desired. A fee of $50 per course will be charged for each portfolio that is evaluated, regardless of whether or not the advanced standing is granted.
3. Advanced Standing must be requested prior to enrollment but no later than the end of the student's first semester of study at AGTS. Requests should be submitted to the Registrar's Office.
4. Partial course advanced standing will not be granted.
5. If the student later takes a course where advanced standing has been granted, the advanced standing would be nullified.
6. Advanced Standing may be granted for courses listed in the categories “Mission of God and World Christianity” and “Bible and Theology.”

7. In an area where a student demonstrates competency but the criteria preclude Advanced Standing, a substitute course may be allowed if approved by the faculty adviser and the Academic Dean.
Master of Arts in Intercultural Ministries

The Master of Arts in Intercultural Ministries (M.A.I.M.) is a 48-hour degree designed to form leaders with a thorough understanding of God’s mission for the Church and the interpersonal and intercultural communication skills essential for productive ministry in cross-cultural settings. The program helps students integrate anthropology, psychology, sociology and theology to inform the task of world evangelization and the planting and nurturing of the Church. It also trains missionaries and other cross-cultural workers for roles in theological education and the development of leaders.

Concentrations

Students may choose from four concentrations in missions studies: Intercultural Ministries, Global Missions, Mental Health and Muslim Ministries.

Intercultural Ministries Concentration

This track consists of twelve credits of electives chosen from courses numbered with the prefixes MCC, MCS, MHT and MSS. It provides a solid academic basis for ministry in a missions context or for further missions studies at the doctoral level. A student in the M.A.I.M. who wishes to apply for AG credentials may take HIS 532 History and Polity of the Assemblies of God as a missions
Global Missions Concentration (GM)

The GM concentration permits students to pursue a significant portion of their degree outside the context of normal, on-campus studies, allowing them to live, learn and develop ministry skills in a cross-cultural setting (whether in a foreign country or in a cross-cultural setting in the United States). The experience is designed to guide the student in developing the cultural fluency necessary for effective ministry in today’s globalized and multicultural world.

Students must complete twelve credits of graduate-level studies in an AGTS-approved institution which can be transferred back to fulfill the degree requirements at AGTS. The courses taken under the GM Special Studies Program may be in fields of study other than Intercultural Ministries, but require the prior approval of the assigned AGTS mentor in consultation with the academic dean of AGTS.

In addition to classroom curriculum, the student is expected to be involved in the fullest possible range of campus, student life, and student ministry activities. The host culture(s) is to be experienced and learned through participation. The student will be encouraged to risk moving away from his or her cultural comfort zone to explore the adventure of getting into the “skin” of another culture. The GM student journal should reflect an intentional involvement in and engagement of the cross-cultural experience.

Mental Health Concentration

MCS/PCP 622    Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder   3
MCS/PCP 629    Counseling Diverse Populations   3
MCS/PTH 654    Pentecostal Perspectives on Justice, the Church and Society  3
One of the following: 3
   PCP  662 Child and Adolescent Psychopathology
   PCP  663 Psychopathology

Islamic Studies Concentration

Islam is one of the world’s fastest growing religions, with over 1.4 billion adherents—over one-fifth of the world’s population. While Islam advances at an alarming rate, it remains resistant to the gospel. The Church must address this challenge. The Islamic Studies Concentration provides the opportunity to develop competencies essential for effective ministry to Muslims. Islamic Studies courses are taught in a modular format—usually one or two weeks—on the AGTS campus and at selected extension sites. Professors will be members of the AGTS faculty, Center for Ministry to Muslims and visiting professors of Islamics. Required courses are:

MCS 545 Engaging Islam 3
MHT 649 Christian-Muslim Theological Issues 3
MSS 643 Church Planting in Muslim Contexts 3
One of the following: 3
   MCS 552 Women in Islam
   MCS 553 Islam in the United States
   MCS 554 Folk Islam and Power Encounter
   MSS 641 Practicum in Intercultural Ministry I*

* Practicum must be completed in a Muslim context.
Practicum

This is a cross-cultural practicum. Students who choose the Islamic Studies concentration must complete their practicum in a Muslim context. This practicum requires a pre-session orientation, a post-session assessment and an approved, supervised cross-cultural involvement. The practicum will usually be completed in a two to four week time frame and should normally be scheduled during the summer recess. An exception may be granted to allow the practicum to be scheduled during the course of a regular semester.

In addition to appointing an on-field supervisor, AGTS will assign an in-house mentor to prepare the student for the practicum, and facilitate the understanding and synthesizing of the experience. The student is required to keep a daily journal of experiences. This journal will be utilized in the writing of a reflection paper which the student will present in a final debriefing session at AGTS.

The length of time required for securing AGWM approvals, communicating with a mentor, getting immunizations and visas and raising funds for Global Missions participants affects the application deadlines for intercultural practicums (see Resident Academic Calendar). Late applications will be approved or denied at the discretion of the GM Committee.

Prior to registering for the cross-cultural practicum, the student must have completed the following four courses: BTH/MHT 501, MHT 635, MCS/MHT 642 and MCS/MHT 643. For an exception, the student must petition the GM Department.

Graduation Requirements

In addition to the general requirements for graduation, the student must submit an acceptable student portfolio and pass a comprehensive examination based on competencies in key areas within the disciplines of missiology. Students who receive a grade of “unsatisfactory” may retake the examination following a 3-week study period.

Policy For Retakes

Students failing the retake must fulfill one of the following options:

a) Officially audit a course covering the competency in which the student’s performance was “unsatisfactory.” Retake and pass a comprehensive question dealing with that competency.

b) Take the course for credit by directed research or in residence. The course will be graded satisfactory, marginal or unsatisfactory

Distance Learning

A limited number of courses may be taken through directed research or distance learning (see Distance Learning Courses).
Master of Arts in Counseling

The Master of Arts in Counseling (M.A.C.) offers both licensure (51-66 credits) and non-licensure (42-48 credits) tracks. The licensure tracks are designed to prepare Christian counselors to serve in the Church or community settings as Licensed Professional Counselors (LPC) and/or Marriage and Family Therapists (MFT) and to prepare qualified graduates to practice in one or both of these counseling concentrations with appropriate professional and legal recognition and in an informed ethical, legal and professional manner. They also prepare students to integrate biblical, theological and psychological insights into effective counseling ministry, stimulate the development of personal maturity, self-understanding and interpersonal sensitivity.

51-66 hour M.A.C. Degree Components and Requirements (Licensure)

The 51-66 hour M.A.C. offers four counseling concentrations: Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT), Licensed Professional Counseling (LPC), LPC/MFT Dual Concentration or Intercultural Ministries. The Dual Concentration is offered to prepare graduates for possible licensure or certification in both marriage and family therapy and licensed professional counseling.

It consists of three elements and requires a 3.0 grade point average for admission and continuance in the program:

- 3 credits of core foundational studies,
- 18 credits of required coursework in psychology and counseling, and
- 30-45 credits in an area of concentration.

Students are required to attend a minimum of 10 personal growth therapy sessions (at their own expense) with a departmentally approved therapist in the first year of their seminary education experience.

42-48 hour M.A.C. Program in Community Mental Health Service (C.M.H.S.T.) Degree Components and Requirements (Non-Licensure)

The 42-48 hour M.A.C., Community Mental Health Service (C.M.H.S.T.) is a non-licensure track designed to prepare students for work in the church and/or public health agencies that do not require licensure. The C.M.H.S.T. requires a minimum grade point average of 2.5 for admission and continuance in the program.

Students in the C.M.H.S.T. who desire to apply to for a licensure track must have a 3.0 grade point average after completion of at least 30 hours at AGTS. If approved, continuation in a licensure track and enrollment in a clinical practicum is contingent upon the student’s ability to maintain a 3.0 gpa.

Students from the C.M.H.S.T. who qualify to transfer to a licensure track will forfeit any advanced standing awarded when initially admitted to AGTS for undergraduate counseling and/or psychology studies.

2 Students may substitute MFT III for MFT I.

Counseling Licensure

Students should note that in both the Professional Counseling and Marriage and Family Therapy concentrations, state licensure and professional recognition have additional requirements after completion of a graduate degree. These requirements include a specific number of hours of counseling under the clinical supervision of an approved supervisor and, in most states, the successful completion of a qualifying examination in the area of concentration.

Some states may require additional course work as well. Students are advised to determine the specific requirements in the state in which they plan to practice. In all cases, the prerogative of professional recognition rests with the membership committee of the professional association or state regulatory agency.

Students who want to pursue doctoral studies in the area of counseling may find this degree to be helpful preparation for those studies, but should discuss that possibility with the institution where they plan to do their doctoral studies.

Practicums

The specific practicums required for each concentration are delineated in each degree program. Since practicums are designed to allow for the application of the principles and procedures studied in other courses, a sufficient academic foundation must be demonstrated prior to entering the counseling practicums. Timing is crucial and students should begin planning their practicums early in the academic program. Approval for a practicum must be secured through an interview scheduled with the counseling practicum adviser. Students will subsequently pursue individually attained placement upon approval. Registration for a practicum must be completed by the pre-registration date for the semester in which the practicum is to be taken. Additionally, the student should be aware that practicum requirements for specific state licensure may exceed AGTS requirements. Students should verify specific state requirements prior to beginning practicum. Practicums will be graded satisfactory, marginal or unsatisfactory. A fee of $250 is assessed to students enrolled in counseling practicums.
Graduation Requirements
In addition to the general requirements for graduation, the student must pass a written comprehensive examination before the degree is awarded. Students who fail the comprehensive examination will be allowed to retake the exam following a three-week study period.

Policy For Retakes
Students failing the exam retake must audit or enroll in designated and approved courses, then retake and pass the exam. In the event of failure on the second retake, the student may not repeat the exam without an approved, rigorous remedial program.

Distance Learning
Due to state licensing requirements, counseling majors are advised not to take courses by distance learning or directed research. Some exceptions may be approved through the academic adviser for Bible or theology courses.
Continuing Education

The Office of Continuing Education seeks to enhance the effectiveness of ministers through classroom sessions, conferences and seminars, distance learning and modular sessions. It also serves to facilitate lifelong learning and renewal for ministers and church leaders.

Program Design

Courses are scheduled at strategic regional locations as well as the resident AGTS campus. Courses are offered in a variety of schedules supported by pre-session and post-session assignments. Individuals who are engaged in full-time ministry or other employment are encouraged to take at least one course per semester.

Branch Campuses

- AGTS Main Campus, Springfield, Missouri
- AGTS Northeast Branch Campus, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania
- AGTS Northwest Branch Campus, Kirkland, Washington
- AGTS Southeast Branch Campus, Celebration, Florida
- AGTS Southwest Branch Campus, Phoenix, Arizona
- AGTS West Branch Campuses in Scotts Valley & Sacramento, California

Programs

The Office of Continuing Education offers the following programs:

Master of Arts in Christian Ministries

a 48-hour degree program. This is the only master’s degree offered by AGTS which may be completed entirely at one of the branch campuses. Up to one-half of the required credits may be earned through Distance Learning Courses.

Master of Divinity In-Service Track

a 78-hour degree program. This curriculum design eliminates course reduction. One-third of the required credits (27) must be taken at the main campus (this requirement may be satisfied by attending one-week modular classes, summer sessions or full-length semesters). Up to one-half of the required credits may be earned through Distance Learning Courses.

Certificate Programs for Graduate Studies

These are designed to provide continuing education opportunities for ministers and lay leadership, who wish to enhance their competency in specific areas through graduate level education without the commitment to complete a degree. These certificates provide training in specific areas, such as expository preaching, leadership or evangelism. The Certificate Program can also facilitate the completion of any graduate degree by applying credits earned to respective degree requirements.

Distance Learning Courses

enables individuals to earn credits toward a graduate degree without traveling to any of the participating campuses. Participants study selected subjects through lectures on audio, video and online courses supplemented by directed reading and research assignments, under the direction of faculty mentors. As many as one-third of the required credits for the resident degree program and up to one-half of the required credits for the continuing education degree programs may be earned through distance learning or directed research (other advanced standing credit may limit the number of allowable hours).

Continuing Education Nondegree (Audit)

courses taken on a noncredit basis at one quarter the regular tuition rate. They offer continuing education for individuals who do not wish to pursue a degree. Please note that courses audited cannot be changed to credit.

National Association of Church Business Administration

AGTS is a training center for the National Association of Church Business Administration (NACBA) and offers seminars leading to certification by NACBA as a Certified Church Administrator. By special arrangement, these seminars may also be taken for graduate credit at AGTS. For additional information on the NACBA certification program, contact the AGTS Continuing Education Office.

Note: Credits earned in the Continuing Education program may be applied to resident programs (see Advanced Standing).

Admission Requirements

Individuals are expected to complete the requirements for their degree under the catalog in effect at the time of initial degree candidacy. They may elect to meet modifications in the program announced in subsequent catalogs if approved. (Contact Registrar’s Office for approval process.)

All requirements for the M.A.C.M. degree through Continuing Education must be completed within six years. Active missionaries must complete their degree within 10 years.

Admission Procedure

Applicants for admission must submit the following to the Enrollment Office:

1. Application, photograph and the nonrefundable fee of $75 (see www.agts.edu for online application).
2. Official certified copies of transcripts from all post-secondary schools attended, sent directly by the schools to the seminary.
3. Personal/ministerial references from two individuals who have known you at least three years or more.
4. All participants in the AGTS Continuing Education program are required to read the AGTS Continuing Education Handbook which spells out the policies and procedures for the Continuing Education program. The handbook is published online, but is available in print upon request.
5. Applicants whose first language is not English must submit TOEFL exam scores (see Application link to index).

Concurrent Enrollment

Participants in the Continuing Education program who are interested in concurrent enrollment in another seminary or graduate school for the purpose of transferring credits to AGTS toward the M.A.C.M. or the M.Div. In-Service must secure approval in advance from the academic dean (contact the Registrar’s Office) (see Advanced Standing).

Financial assistance is available to qualified applicants. For more information contact the Continuing Education Office or the Financial Aid Office.

Graduation Requirements

See the general requirements for graduation.

Master of Arts in Christian Ministries

The Master of Arts in Christian Ministries (M.A.C.M.) is a 48-hour professional studies degree designed to provide advanced biblical, theological and practical training for individuals who desire to enhance their ministry skills. It equips ministers to become life-long learners and to develop models of personal and professional growth. It differs from the M.Div. degree in that it provides no academic concentration which would prepare students for ongoing graduate degrees at the Ph.D. or D.Min. levels.

M.A.C.M. Degree Components and Requirements

The Continuing Education version of the M.A.C.M. can be completed by any student regardless of the field of their undergraduate degree. These charges will reflect the cost of tuition that exist while the student was taking the certificate courses. In addition, the application fee will be waived for those certificate students who decide to transfer into a master's program.
Doctor of Ministry

Shaping the Future of Pentecostal Leadership

The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) is a professional degree program intended for men and women who are actively engaged in full-time Christian ministry. The primary purpose of the program is to enhance the participants’ professional competence in the particular area of their gifts and calling. Practical in nature while at the same time maintaining the highest academic standards for theological reflection on the practice of ministry, the program seeks to integrate learning into the context of each participant’s ministry and can be shaped to meet individual needs. Opportunities for personal and spiritual growth are woven into the fabric of the entire program.

The focus of this program is developing strong Pentecostal ministers. Today’s vital and growing ministries are demanding Spirit-anointed, effective leadership. If leaders expect to remain on the cutting edge of complex, demanding and ever changing ministry, they must prepare themselves now. The D.Min. program is designed to equip participants to be “leaders worth following.”

Curricular Design

The Doctor of Ministry curriculum has three primary components:

Core Courses: establish and enrich the participant’s foundation for effective ministry.

Elective Courses: offer in-depth training in specific areas relevant to the practice of ministry. Participants may select a specific area of concentration (Missional Leadership, Biblical Preaching, Military Chaplaincy, Professional Coaching, Women in Leadership), or follow a self-design option. Additional specialty cohorts are developed as ministry needs and opportunities warrant.

Professional Project: the participant’s ministry context will be the subject of a professional project at the conclusion of the elective phase. A Project Design course prepares the participant to write a professional project integrating and applying significant program learnings in a ministry context. Participants must normally complete all core classes before taking the Project Design class. Exceptions to this will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The project enriches the larger church through publication on the ProQuest internet database.

Cohort Format

One dynamic element of the program is involvement in a Doctor of Ministry cohort comprised of individuals from a variety of ministry backgrounds. The cohort remains together for the core phase of the program allowing deep and meaningful relationships to be formed and, in the case of speciality cohorts, remains together throughout the duration of the program. “As iron sharpens iron” the cohort provides an incredible peer learning environment—one that is both challenging and motivating.
Program Goals

The D.Min. experience focuses on giving participants the opportunity to expand their influence by growing into ministers who:

Grow in Spiritual Maturity
- Deepening historical and theological appreciation of the Pentecostal tradition.

Program Schedule

The D.Min. is an in-service degree that is completed while participants remain active in ministry. The program is designed in one-week modules offered three times per year—usually February, June and October. These modules are preceded by personal reading/preparation and are followed by written projects which apply course materials to participants’ ministries. Once a participant has reached the elective phase of the program, modules may be taken back-to-back. The program consists of nine modules, as well as additional time to complete the D.Min. project. Thus, in its entirety, the degree will normally take approximately four years to complete.

Admission Requirements

Applicants for the D.Min. program must meet the following requirements:

1. Have earned an M.Div. degree or its academic equivalent from an accredited graduate school. (See Master of Divinity Equivalency.)
2. Give evidence of ability to do doctoral level work as indicated by a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) in previous, accredited graduate study.
3. Have at least three years of full-time ministry experience following the completion of the first professional master’s degree.
4. Be currently involved in a full-time ministry context (e.g., pastor, teacher, missionary, denominational or para-church organizational leader, chaplain, evangelist, counselor, etc.).
Application Procedure

To apply for admission
1. Submit a Pre-Application (download from the Doctor of Ministry Admission web site or contact the D.Min. office for a full application.
2. Submit a completed application with the nonrefundable fee of $75, recent photograph and completed “Ministerial Experience” questionnaire (available with a full application from the D.Min. Office).
3. Request that official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended be sent to AGTS, “Attention D.Min. Office.”
4. Distribute personal, ministerial and academic recommendation forms and instruct those filling them out to return them within ten days to the AGTS D.Min. Office.
5. Complete a two-page “biblical theology of ministry” paper. (The D.Min. Office will provide you with instructions regarding this paper.)

Acceptance into the Doctor of Ministry Program

Upon action by the Admissions Committee, applicants will be notified in writing regarding the status of their acceptance into the D.Min. Program.

Academic Policies and Procedures

Academic Probation
A participant is placed on academic probation at the conclusion of any course in which his/her grade point average falls below the required minimum (3.0) necessary to maintain satisfactory academic progress in the degree program. Participants who fail to raise their grades to the required level or higher by the end of two courses on academic probation are subject to dismissal from the program.

Academic Status
Participants will remain in good academic standing in the D.Min. Program as long as they maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average, meet all financial obligations to the seminary and conduct their personal lives with spiritual, moral and professional integrity. The administration reserves the right to dismiss any participant whose integrity in any of these areas is deemed unacceptable.

Concurrent Enrollment
Doctor of Ministry participants interested in concurrent enrollment at another seminary or graduate school for the purpose of transferring hours back into the AGTS Doctor of Ministry Program must secure approval in advance from the director of the Doctor of Ministry Program. Credits must be in compliance with advanced standing/transfer credit policy. Note: The transfer of credits does not waive/change the comprehensive program fee.
Course Attendance
Due to the accelerated pace of each course, regular and punctual attendance is expected of each participant for all course activities. Because attendance is such a crucial element of the cohort peer-learning process, a participant cannot be absent for more than four hours of class and still receive credit.

Course Transfer Credit for Military Chaplains
D.Min. participants may receive up to twelve hours for transfer credit. Chaplain participants who have already transferred in 12 credits for their military work may not transfer in additional elective credits for additional military classes or doctoral work completed.

Grading
AGTS uses a 4-point grading scale.

Grade points per credit and definition for D.Min. participants:

- A or A+ Superior 4.0
- A- 3.7
- B+ 3.3
- B Satisfactory 3.0
- B- 2.7
- C+ 2.3
- C Poor 2.0
- C- 1.7
- F Failure 0.0*
- AU Audit 0.0
- IP In Process 0.0
- N No Credit 0.0
- S Satisfactory 0.0
- U Unsatisfactory 0.0
- WP Withdrawn Passing 0.0
- WF Withdrawn Failing 0.0*

*Affects grade point average

Incomplete Grades
On occasion an “incomplete” may be granted, at the discretion of the professor, for extenuating circumstances. The professor will decide the merits of each request, what penalties, if any, and completion dates in keeping with the limits established by the Registrar’s Office. If the extension is granted, a grade of “IP” (In Process) will be issued. Note: there will be a change-of-grade fee even though the participant has been granted an extension from the professor. A participant can have no more than two incompletes or IP’s at a given time.

A grade of “IP” (In Process) will be issued if the professor’s due date falls after the semester ending date for AGTS. A change of grade form will be sent to the participant when the professor submits the grades for that course.
Graduation Requirements

To satisfy graduation requirements for the D.Min. degree, the participant must:

1. Satisfactorily complete all D.Min. program requirements. This includes the completion of 30 credits of course work (twelve from Core courses, twelve from Concentration courses, six from Project Design course and project completion). This requirement must include the four core courses.
2. Maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0, including no more than one C. (A participant cannot graduate with a C- on his or her transcript. Participants must retake the course, at their expense, in order to earn a grade higher than C-.)
3. Be in good standing at the seminary (see Academic Status).
4. Complete an acceptable and approved D.Min. project.
5. Make an acceptable oral presentation of the D.Min. project at the Project Symposium.
6. Register for graduation no later than October 31 of the previous year through the Registrar’s Office.
7. Receive approval from the D.Min. Committee, Academic Affairs Committee and Faculty to graduate.
8. Attend the commencement exercises. (Approval to be absent must be secured from the Academic Affairs Committee through the registrar by April 1.)

Master of Divinity Equivalency

Master of Divinity equivalency is defined as the completion of 72 semester credits of graduate studies in categories closely parallel to the M.Div. curriculum at AGTS. No credit for life experience will be granted.

AGTS will recognize M.Div. equivalency credits from any institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Higher Education or foreign accrediting body, as long as at least one master’s degree was received from an ATS/CHEA accredited institution or an institution recognized by an approved foreign accrediting body. Students submitting course credits for review must have earned a minimum “B” average GPA (3.0 on a 4.0 scale). Official transcripts must be received by the Registrar’s Office before consideration for credit will be given.

AGTS will recognize equivalency credit for up to 36 credits which have been earned through correspondence/distance learning. Students seeking M.Div. equivalency credit for more than 36 credits will be referred to the Admissions Committee. AGTS will recognize M.Div. equivalency credit for valid/supervised pastoral clinical education. The institution and credit must be recognized by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education, Inc. accreditation commission.

At applicant’s request an equivalency evaluation will be completed by the D.Min. Office upon receipt of applicant’s transcripts. Applicants who do not have an M.Div. degree may satisfy equivalency by taking courses prescribed by the D.Min. Office. AGTS offers a number of independent study, online and extension courses which may be taken to meet such a deficiency. The FasTrak delivery system offers an accelerated way for MA-holders to achieve M.Div. Equivalency. Applicants may contact the D.Min. Office about FasTrak or see the Doctor of Ministry web site for more information. Courses fulfilling equivalency requirements will not count toward the requirements of the D.Min. degree and must be completed prior to admittance into the D.Min. program.

Ministry Requirement

Each participant must remain involved in full-time ministry throughout the duration of the program. Any participant who leaves the ministry for any reason while pursuing the D.Min. degree must petition the D.Min. Committee for continuation in the program.
Professional Project

The professional project is the culmination of the D.Min. experience in which the ideas and applications of the program are measured and evaluated. A Project Design course prepares the participant to complete the project. Participants must normally complete all core classes before taking the Project Design class. Exceptions to this will be considered on a case-by-case basis. For further information on the project guidelines contact the D.Min. Office.

Note: Chaplain participants shall be designated in the “project phase” on the first day of the semester following the term when they took the Project Design course. The duration of the project phase shall normally be eighteen months to two years.

Program Duration

The degree will normally require approximately four years to complete, including the project. This schedule is set to avoid unnecessary pressure on the participant’s responsibilities to family and ministry. Participants are required to complete the degree within six years beginning from the date of their first attendance in a doctoral course. In some cases an extension may be granted (e.g., for those on overseas assignment). Any extensions will be granted by the D.Min. Committee. Extending the program into the fifth year will incur extra fees (See next section, “Program Extensions” and section below, “Program Extension Fees.”

Program Extensions

The program is designed to be normally completed in four years. There is a maximum time limit of six years. For participants extending beyond the fourth year:

- 5th year: continuation automatically granted; a continuation fee will apply.
- 6th year: continuation automatically granted; a continuation fee will apply.
- 7th year: Participants desiring an extension beyond the six year program limit must submit a written appeal to the D.Min. Committee. This request must include detailed projections (plan and timeframe) for the completion of their project. Any extensions will be granted by approval of the D.Min. Committee and an extension fee will apply.
- 8th year: Participants desiring to extend into their eighth year must submit a written appeal to the D.Min. Committee (see above). If approved, the participant will be required to take 2 additional courses at his or her expense, as well as be charged an additional extension fee.

Extensions beyond the eighth year will normally not be granted.

Transfer Credits

An individual may transfer in a total of six doctoral credits. Individual appeals for transfer credits will be evaluated based upon the following considerations:

1. Transfer credits must be from ATS/CHEA accredited institutions or those recognized by an approved foreign accrediting body.
2. Student must have earned a passing grade of “B” or higher (3.0 on a 4.0 scale).
3. Transfer credits must be relevant to the D.Min. degree.
4. Recent time frame of courses taken will be reviewed. Extenuating circumstances of the participant will be considered (e.g., missionary in a situation that makes it difficult to take courses in a timely fashion.)
AGTS will accept up to six doctoral credits for valid/supervised pastoral clinical education provided the CPE units were not used to fulfill the requirements of M.Div. Equivalency, or any other graduate degree. The institution and credit must be recognized by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education, Inc. accreditation commission.

To request transfer credit, official transcripts must be received by the Registrar’s Office before consideration for doctoral credit will be given. (Any exceptions to the standard policy must be recommended by the D.Min. Committee and approved by the Academic Affairs Committee.)

Note: The transfer of credits does not waive/change the program fee.

Doctor of Ministry Courses Open to Unclassified Doctoral Level Students

A limited number of non-degree, post-M.Div. persons who are not pursuing a D.Min. degree at AGTS may be allowed to take courses if they satisfy admission requirements for the D.Min. program. Contact the D.Min. Office for further information.

Audit Policy

Graduates of the Doctor of Ministry program have the option of auditing one elective course per year on a space-available basis. A significantly discounted fee is charged for the audit option.

Financial Information

Program Fee

There is one program fee for the Doctor of Ministry.* The current fee is $14,970 and covers tuition and other fees. Some specialized cohorts may incur additional resource fees. (See D.Min. Participant Handbook for details). This fee does not cover the $75 application fee, textbooks, costs of travel, housing and meals incurred while on campus, editing, directed research fees, continuation fees, extension fees or tuition for courses taken at other institutions.

The program fee (*subject to change each fall) is payable in three installments per year. (AGTS accepts cash, checks, Visa, MasterCard and Discover as payment.) The first installment is due on the first day of class. All subsequent installments are due on the first day of the months of regularly scheduled courses (February, June and October). The fees are non-refundable.

Financial Aid

The program does qualify for VA benefits and private student loans; however, grants and scholarships for Doctor of Ministry study are normally not available. D.Min. participants are eligible for loan deferment. Contact the Financial Aid Office for more information.

Promissory Note

Participants are required to sign a promissory note at their initial registration indicating their anticipation of paying tuition, fees, books, etc. This is a standard procedure required of all AGTS participants. The promissory note will outline the installment due dates for the participant. The installments outlined are to be paid consecutively and are still due at the assigned date, even if the participant for any reason skips a course.

Fees

Program Extension Fees:
The program is designed to be completed in four years, with a maximum time limit of six years. (See “Program Extensions” in Academic Policies section for further details.) If a participant extends beyond the fourth year, the following fees will apply:
- year 5 (continuation fee)—$500
- year 6 (continuation fee)—$750
- year 7 (extension fee)—$1500
- year 8 (extension fee)—$1500 + 2 additional classes (at participant’s expense)

Extensions will not normally be granted past the eighth year.

Project Deadline Late Fee:
Participants who have applied for a spring graduation and who exceed the November 1 deadline for submitting their project to the D.Min. project coordinator will be assessed a fee of $50/week for each week beyond the November 1 deadline. For participants who end up not graduating in spring, these fees will be applied toward their continuation or extension fee.

Unclassified Student Course Fee:
The fee for doctoral students from outside the AGTS program taking our classes will be 115% of the going tuition rate.

Unclassified Student Audit Fee:
The fee for doctoral students from outside the AGTS program auditing our elective classes will be 25% of current single fee payment.

Graduate Audit Fee:
The fee for graduates of the AGTS D.Min. program auditing elective classes will be $100 per class.

Readmission Financial Policy
If a participant withdraws from the program and later desires to return, his or her financial obligations will be as follows:
The program fee current at the time of readmission will apply and the participant will sign a new promissory note. All payments made under the previous promissory note would be applied toward the current program fee. Participants would be required to pay the difference between the current program fee and what he or she actually paid under the previous program fee.

Lodging, Meals, Transportation
It is up to participants to make their own travel and living arrangements for their stay in Springfield.
Library and Research Information

AGTS has an extensive 98,000 volume library designed to support Doctor of Ministry course offerings. D.Min. participants may borrow books and acquire photocopies of journal articles. Available materials will normally be shipped within 24 hours of receipt of the request. Materials may be requested from the AGTS Library directly via fax (417-268-1009), email (agts@agts.edu), or phone (800-467-AGTS or 417-269-1000). In addition, many resources for theological study are often available online or through local libraries or local interlibrary loan programs. Materials may also be requested from the AGTS library by utilizing the interlibrary loan services of a local library.

AGTS Doctor of Ministry Loan Policies

- AGTS Materials Available to Doctor of Ministry Participants: All books in the circulating collection are available for loan to AGTS participants provided they have not been placed on reserve for courses. (Reference books, periodicals, microforms, audio-visuals and certain dissertations and theses are available for use in the AGTS library only.) Photocopies of articles in journals and magazines may be purchased from the AGTS library at a cost of 5 cents per page. Participants will be invoiced for photocopies. Invoices for photocopies that have not been paid within two weeks after being mailed out will be sent to the Business Office to be charged to the participant’s account.

- Book Loan Period: The loan period for books checked out to Doctor of Ministry participants is 60 days. The due date is indicated on the date due slip in the back of the book. Participants may have fifteen books out on one subject at a time.

- Book Renewal: Books may be renewed for one additional 30-day period if not already requested by another individual. To renew books, the participant must contact the circulation services coordinator at the AGTS library in person or by phone. When the call is placed to renew books, the call number, title and author of each book must be specified properly to renew the book. At that time, the participant will be informed if someone else is waiting to use the book(s).

- Recall of Books: Books on loan to AGTS participants are subject to immediate recall if needed for reserve at the AGTS library. Also, after the initial two weeks that books are checked out, if the books are needed by other individuals, they are subject to immediate recall. Recalled books will be considered overdue if they are not returned within two weeks from the date notification is sent or transmitted by phone.

- MOBIUS Materials Available to Doctor of Ministry Participants: AGTS is a member of the Missouri Bibliographic Information User System (MOBIUS) and shares a common Web OPAC (Online Public Access Catalog) with other MOBIUS libraries. D.Min. participants may place holds through Web OPAC for circulating books from other MOBIUS schools. The requested books will be sent to the AGTS Library or to any other participating Missouri academic library selected as a pickup location. The loan period for MOBIUS books is three weeks with two three-week renewal periods possible. However, once the initial loan period has ended, MOBIUS books are subject to recall. It may be possible to mail some items to out-of-state D.Min. participants in certain instances. However, it would be necessary to work out the specific details with the library staff.

Please note the loan period would include any amount of time needed to ship the item from AGTS to the participant and the amount of time needed to ship the item back to AGTS.

For complete library policies, please consult the library’s web page at www.agts.edu/lib
I. Core Courses: (12 credits)

Core 1 - PTH 901 Renewing the Spiritual Leader
Developing into a leader worth following is considered in the context of self-leadership, other-leadership and Pentecostal spirituality. A critical appraisal of leadership models is presented as the class develops a synthetic model of Christian leadership considered from a Pentecostal perspective and based on foundations of personal development and integrity.

Core 2 - PTH 902 Biblical Theology in Ministry
This course gives special attention to developing the skills and methods of biblical theology for the study of scripture and equips the student to successfully complete the biblical-theological component of the D.Min. Project. The course also explores the role of biblical-theological reflection in leadership, ministry development and preaching.

Core 3 - PTH 909 The Future of Pentecostalism
Pentecostalism has reached the centenary mark, an event that would have been unimaginable to its first generation. In many respects the movement has changed. Not surprisingly, Pentecostals face major challenges related to cherished theological, spiritual and liturgical distinctives that once uniquely identified them. This course examines and evaluates dynamics of the early movement, the nature of the crucial changes that have occurred and what Pentecostalism may look like in its second century of existence.

Core 4 - PTH 905 Leading Christian Organizations
This course covers leadership of the contemporary church or ministry with special consideration given to the integration of biblical values, contemporary leadership theory, contemporary organizational theory and the participant’s context of ministry.

Note: The core courses are taken consecutively with the same cohort.

II. Elective Courses (12 credits)
Following completion of the Core Courses, a participant may choose a specified concentration (12 credits). Those with a specialized ministry interest may work with the D.Min. Team to construct a combination of courses, directed research and other experiences to produce an educational experience that is a precise fit to his or her specialty and context. Types of electives regularly offered include:

PTH 971 Strategic Planning
Leaders are talking about the emerging church with a focus on doing ministry in a post-modern context. It is always good to find out what God is doing in faith communities across generations, regions and denominations. Certainly we in the North American church can learn from leaders in the developing countries. But the question remains, “What is emerging in your community, in your congregation, in your leadership team?” As such, strategic planning is a discernment process in finding out what God is up to on a global scale, but especially in our own communities. Strategic planning is also the commitment to put our ideas and dreams in writing—specific enough to measure our progress over a period of time and flexible enough to change with new developments.
PTH 962 Conflict Management
This course develops a biblical and practical understanding of conflict. It examines the conflict cycle, styles of conflict management and intervention strategies for resolving conflict. Special focus will be given to the leader’s pivotal role in conflict, using conflict for positive change and the cultural climate for conflict.

PTH 977 The Character of Pentecostal Leadership: Theological Reflection & Missional Empowerment
Pentecostal leadership for the twenty-first century must include the skills to spiritually discern biblical priorities in constantly changing contexts and a commitment to aggressively participate in the ongoing redemptive ministry of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. Key insights for the twenty-first century challenge of leadership exist in a revisiting of John Wesley’s quadrilateral for theological reflection. The process of theologizing needs increased attention in cultures where post-modernism, civilization clashes and differing worldviews have huge influence. The fresh pneumatological insights emerging from Pentecostals globally need to be taken seriously.

PTH 968 Coaching & Consulting the Learning Organization
Churches today are faced with a need to make major changes in their organizational structure and culture. This course identifies a process for church organizational development and the roles of leaders serving as consultants and coaches. The participant will: (1) grow in his or her understanding of the roles of coaches, consultants and mentors; (2) understand the use of a church transformational model; (3) become familiar with the values and roles of church organizational coaches; (4) broaden his or her understanding of techniques and attitudes necessary to be an effective church coach and (5) develop a basic understanding of learning organization philosophy as applied to churches.

PTH 974 Theology and Practice of Spiritual Gifts
This is an eclectic course, combining biblical (esp. Paul, Mark, Luke and John), missiological, theological and pastoral insights to the gifts of the Spirit. It presents the biblical-theological basis for ministry in spiritual gifts and an understanding of the church and its major functions from a theological and structural point of view. Pastors and missionaries need to grasp the sensitivities and unique needs of multi-cultural churches, especially as these things relate to spiritual gifts. Most importantly, the development of gift ministry in our own lives is emphasized and practiced.

PTH 931 Advanced Expository Preaching
Instruction in preaching from the major genres of Scripture: narrative, poetry, wisdom, prophecy/apocalyptic, gospels, epistles. The course will focus on expositional and interpretive methods for each genre as well as the application of those methods to sermon development. Attention will also be given to topical expository preaching, biblical theology in preaching and to developing expository series from books as well as from topics.

PTH 932 Narrative Preaching
Meeting at the crossroads of God’s stories with our stories, this course will require critical theological reflection on both the content and form of narrative preaching. Varied forms of narrative preaching will be studied to enhance homiletic options and to build the participants’ abilities in narrative prophetic witness. Elements of the historical and sociological dynamics of narration, effective communication through story, preaching to biblical narrative accounts, cultural connectedness through narrative techniques and the psychological/sociological/ethnic dynamics of narration will be studied and applied. Participants will be encouraged to go beyond methodology.
and technique to answer important questions about their own narrative theology of proclamation.

PTH 934 Creative Communication

This is an advanced course in communication with emphasis placed on the use of technology including the computer, PowerPoint, digital audio and video and the Internet. Special application is made to the pulpit, classroom and other training settings. For the greatest benefit, participants should be reasonably proficient in computer use and have a computer available for use in the class (laptops and/or desktops which are less than two years old should be adequate). Some added equipment and software may need to be acquired (a list will be available). If you have a digital camera and/or digital camcorder (esp. miniDV) bring these along. The class will have a strong hands-on component and is geared towards gaining skills and proficiency.

PTH 981 Preaching that Connects

The course focuses on re-thinking both the possibilities and the practices of preaching for the experienced public speaker. Using multi-media, practical exercises and peer interaction, participants will have the opportunity to develop: (1) a renewed theology of preaching; (2) a broader repertoire of communication styles; (3) a healthy integration of presentation technologies; (4) a skill set for developing great audiences; (5) an integration of audience sovereignty and scriptural authority; (6) a sensitivity to emerging audiences; (7) a holistic understanding of preaching in the context of both personal and corporate spirituality; (8) greater flexibility in audience adaptation; (9) the capacity to discern the role of preaching in effective Christian leadership; (10) the discipline of continuous personal improvement.

Military Chaplaincy Concentration (12 credits)

Qualified chaplains may transfer a portion of their advanced military training into the D.Min. Program to create a very efficient and economical way to complete the degree.

III. Professional Project (6 credits)

PTH 906 Project Design

A course designed to prepare the participant for presentation of an acceptable project prospectus to the D.Min. Project Committee. Components of a prospectus, research methodologies and writing strategies are explored and applied.

PTH 999 Project Development and Presentation

PTH 999 constitutes the composition and oral presentation of an acceptable written project which integrates theory and praxis and makes a meaningful contribution to the practice of ministry. All participants working on the project phase will maintain a continued registration in the program.

Program Administration and Faculty

For a complete listing of the AGTS administration and Doctor of Ministry leadership team and faculty, see the AGTS D.Min. web page.
“The Harvest is Plentiful”

Who will cast the vision for a new generation of Pentecostal missionaries? Who will study the times and plot the strategies, teach the students and write the books that will shape the hearts and minds of tomorrow’s missionaries? The AGTS Doctor of Missiology Program has risen to serve these leaders by:

- Enhancing missionary practice and resources
- Preparing participants to teach missiology at any level
- Building foundations for training missionaries overseas
- Equipping leaders for compassion ministries

The D.Miss. recognizes the priority of the Holy Spirit’s person and power in accomplishing the mission of God (Missio Dei) and creates an environment in which students can experience the kind of learning that connects them more deeply to the Spirit’s work in mission and allows them to focus their program on specific application of their learning in the field.

The AGTS Doctor of Missiology consists of 48 credits earned in 11 modules and a professional project, and is built around several components:

- Pentecostal perspective: Distinctive emphasis on Spirit-empowered mission in a global context.
- Lifestyle fit: Relocating to Springfield is not necessary; in fact the D.Miss. requires only five visits to AGTS over the course of the program.
- Cohort experience: Learning and growth occur through the bonds formed with other career missionaries in a diverse small group setting.
- Modular convenience: Courses are taught in two, one-week blocks scheduled back-to-back allowing two classes on one airfare.
- Contextualized study: Area studies, special study with an approved educational provider and/or tutelage offer field-based training.

Curricular Design

Following a sequence of core classes, the D.Miss. offers tracks in Intercultural Studies (IS) and Christian Relief and Development (RD), in addition to elective courses, and culminates in the writing of a professional project.

Program Goals

The Doctor of Missiology Program will provide students with:

- a deepening biblical and theological understanding of Missio Dei and the kingdom of God;
- a distinctively Pentecostal theology of intercultural ministry;
- an understanding of the historical development of the Christian movement and the participant’s role in the contemporary world;
the ability to discern the Holy Spirit’s direction in the fulfillment of the mission of God in diverse cultural settings and to contextualize effective expressions of the Gospel;

an emphasis on the priorities of evangelism, church planting, leadership formation, and compassion ministries;

a continuing commitment to personal spiritual formation and growth as a member of God’s missionary people;

a working knowledge of the close relationship between the local church and missions; and a scholarly contribution to the understanding and practice of intercultural ministry through the completion of a D.Miss. major applied project that integrates theoretical and empirical disciplines important to a specific ministry.

Program Schedule

A modular format requires five trips to AGTS over three years (all in July and December). Two courses are taken during each two-week session. Participants earn their 48 credits in:

Qualifying Exam

The qualifying examination is intended to demonstrate an acceptable level of competency in missiology and the ability to apply the literature to a set of circumstances. Students will be eligible to take the examination upon successful completion of the following core courses:

- Core 1 – Leaders in a Global Context
- Core 2 – Missio Dei and the Contemporary World
- Core 3 – Intercultural Communication and Missions Anthropology
- Core 4 – Theological Issues, Contextualization and Area Studies

Within six months of having a passing grade posted by the registrar for these courses, the student is required to take the exam. A list of recommended readings to support competencies developed in the core courses will be provided at the beginning of the program.

The qualifying examination is composed of two exams. One exam based on the missiological content and disciplines of study introduced in the core courses one and two; the second on cores three and four. Each exam will be comprised of three questions, two summative questions developed and approved by the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Committee, one for each core course, and one context specific question selected by the Committee from questions submitted by the student.

The student will submit to the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Committee two summative context specific questions for each exam (a total of four questions) which seek to integrate and apply the content of the courses to the student’s specific missional environment. If the questions are not approved, they will be returned to the student with suggestions for resubmission. If approved, the Committee will select one question for each exam. The questions for each of the two exams will be sent electronically to a preapproved proctor.

The student will make arrangements with the proctor to schedule and take the exams in an appropriate context on a computer that is not connected to the internet and contains no files related to the comprehensives. For each exam the proctor will present the three selected questions to the student who will write a response to each. Each exam should be approximately 1200 words referencing the appropriate literature (author only, bibliographic reference not required). Three hours will be allowed for each exam. The two exams are to be taken within a two week period. Upon completion of each exam the proctor will email the student’s response in electronic format to the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Committee, retain one copy as a backup and provide one copy to the student (e.g. by email, thumb drive). Each exam will be graded by a specialist in the field and by a generalist according to the following classifications: Superior, Satisfactory, Marginal or Unsatisfactory. Any grade of unsatisfactory by either grader or marginal by both will require retesting in that discipline/course. A marginal or unsatisfactory score by either grader on the retest will result in disqualification from the program.
"Spirit-Driven Scholar-Practitioners Communicating Christ in a Complex World"

The AGTS Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies (Ph.D./ICS) facilitates the development and academic certification of vocations in missiological and intercultural teaching and scholarship by:

- providing an environment and essential tools that enable research and theological reflection;
- creating a unique learning experience customized to each student’s call, gifts and academic interest;
- equipping missiologists for research, teaching and missional praxis in an increasing complex multicultural world; and
- giving credible voice to scholar practitioner missionaries and national leaders before the academy and the church.

The Ph.D./ICS recognizes the priority of the Holy Spirit’s person and power in accomplishing the mission of God (Missio Dei) and creates an environment in which students can experience the kind of learning that connects them more deeply to the Spirit’s work in mission and allows them to focus their program and research on the application of integrative learning in missional praxis.

The Ph.D./ICS consists of 60 credits earned in 11 modules, three dissertation research courses, and a research dissertation, and is built around several components:

- Pentecostal perspective: Distinctive emphasis on Spirit-empowered mission in a global context.
- Passionate Scholarly Research: The discipline of scholarly research and writing is embraced as a tool of spiritual and missiological discernment and prophetic voice.
- Lifestyle fit: Relocating to Springfield is not necessary; in fact the Ph.D./ICS requires only five visits to AGTS over the course of the program.
- Cohort experience: Learning and growth occur through the bonds formed with other career missionaries in a diverse small group setting.
- Modular convenience: Courses are taught in two, one to two week blocks scheduled back-to-back allowing two classes on one airfare.
- Contextualized study: Area studies, special study with an approved educational provider and/or tutelage offer field-based training.

Curricular Design

Following a sequence of core classes, the Ph.D./ICS offers tracks in Missiological Studies (MS) and Christian Relief and Development (RD), additional elective courses, dissertation research courses and culminates in the writing of a research dissertation.
Program Goals

The program seeks to contribute to the discipline of intercultural studies by enriching research, teaching and the practice of those involved in the field. To that end and in accordance with our commitment to provide the highest level of learning effectiveness and foster a robust culture of assessment, at the completion of the Ph.D. program, graduates will be able to achieve the following learning outcomes:

- demonstrate a breadth of knowledge in theological and religious studies and other academic disciplines, and a comprehensive knowledge of the disciplines that comprise missiology and intercultural studies;
- competently innovate, defend and critique scholarly work and missional practice for the benefit of the academy and the broader community of faith;
- demonstrate ability to engage in original missiological intercultural research and writing that contribute to the discipline and to their research context for the sake of their tradition, the church and the academy;
- make decisions, live and serve according to revealed truth and the will of God in a continuing integrated commitment to learning, spiritual formation, and personal and professional growth;
- demonstrate the ability to utilize research and theological/missiological reflection in specific contexts; and
- commit to the vocation of theological, missiological and intercultural scholarship in its dimensions of teaching, learning and research.

Program Schedule

A modular format requires five trips to AGTS over three years (all in July and December). Two courses are taken during each two to three-week resident session. Participants earn their 60 credits in:

- 5 Core courses
- 3 Track courses (Missiological Studies or Christian Relief and Development)
- 3 Elective courses
- 3 Dissertation research courses
- Dissertation

All modular courses consist of three components:

1. An on-site residential seminar presented by the professor of record for the subject that allows the student to engage in academic dialogue with the professor during class hours and presents the student with the opportunity to utilize the library research facilities after class hours.
2. Pre-residential seminar assignments that differ from course to course but generally include pre-reading assignments, processing audio-visual or online resources, and/or engaging the student in online dialogues with his/ her colleagues.
3. Post-residential seminar assignments that differ from course to course but that generally include the submission of a major research project and could also include online dialogue with colleagues on the assignment.

In order to enhance research opportunities and community development, the modules will be scheduled back-to-back with an additional week of value added elements including student research presentations with peer critique, onsite interviews with a Mentor and Guidance Committee, peer and faculty interaction, and video conferencing with field experts. Another component of the course work (eight credits) may involve studies completed through directed research and doctoral-level study in a cooperating educational institution located near the student’s field work or at the AGTS main campus. An additional 12 credits of dissertation research tutorial courses will focus and develop the research for the dissertation. A final four credits are earned through the satisfactory completion of the writing and oral defense of the dissertation.

Admission Requirements

1. Academic: An M.A. in an appropriate theological or missiological discipline from an acceptable school with a minimum GPA of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
2. Experience: Not less than two years of appropriate intercultural ministry experience.
3. English: For applicants whose primary language is other than English, a TOEFL score of 585 or equivalent.
4. Writing: Submission and approval of a writing sample that demonstrates graduate-level research skills.
5. Language: Second language proficiency. The program requires research proficiency in English as the primary research language of the disciplines of intercultural studies and a second modern language in the field of the research topic. Additional ancient and modern languages may be required as needed for the completion of dissertation research. In exceptional cases, the second modern language requirement may be substituted by petition. Development of a research design, bibliography, and database for intercultural research will be emphasized. The student will also develop the framework for three research tutorials that will inform the major components of his or her dissertation.

Track Courses (12 credits)
Following their Core courses, Ph.D./ICS students will choose between two tracks: Missiological Studies or Christian Relief and Development. Each track involves 12 credits (three courses) of study in a specialized area.

Missiological Studies Track: 12 credits

Community development within a Christian worldview will be informed by the role of the developer on a personal, local, regional and global level.

MS 922 Contemporary Social Issues in Mission
This course will identify the major global issues of injustice that impact women, children and minority people groups, such as human sexual trafficking, children at risk and human rights abuses. It will explore issues that impact on development such as AIDS and other international health crises, urbanization trends, global economic threats, wars and refugees and environmental issues. It will provide a critical overview of best practice interventions by international agencies and Christian relief and development organizations who address these global issues of social injustice.

Elective Courses (12 credits)
Students will select three classes from the available Elective courses to deepen their study of specific topics. One elective course in Area Studies is required.

MS 935 Area Studies Elective (required)
Specialized study in a particular area or region of the world. These studies may be taken as a dissertation tutorial or through course work in government-approved universities around the world. (In order to take this required elective course, the student must petition and secure the approval of his/her Program Advisor.)

MS 930 Alternative Approaches to Education
An analysis of the principles of traditional and nontraditional education, both formal and informal, with emphasis given to ministry formation. Selected educational systems such as theological education by extension (TEE), distance education, in-service training, will be evaluated as to contextual suitability and effectiveness. Participants will engage in creative application of the principles presented and innovative modes of delivery systems.

MS 931 Leading the Christian Non-Profit Organization
The critical role of the faith-based organization (FBO) has been universally acknowledged by the development community in its war on poverty. This course will trace the FBO’s road to recognition in both the United States and internationally and examine the unique contribution of the FBO in community development. It will explore international legislation governing the establishment of NGO’s, examine legal requirements for registration, and identify the financial management and project reporting requirements that are expected of an accountable and transparent organization. It will further provide the student with the skills to create a community development profile, SWOT analysis and strategic plan to assist a church community to mobilize for action. Finally the student will be prepared in the skills of creating a viable business plan and the identification of potential funding resources for FBO activities.
MC 932 Contextualized Leadership Training
A study to facilitate leadership development vision by analyzing leadership selection processes, authority patterns and spiritual formation in a particular setting. Participants will be encouraged to develop culturally appropriate principles, strategies and methods of leadership training including church-based, institutional and non-formal approaches. Emphasis will be given to designing resources and building team concepts for long-term reproducible models.

MS 933 HIV/AIDS in a Global Context
The course will explore the global HIV/AIDS pandemic from various perspectives. It will look at the medical issues that the disease raises and its contribution to global poverty. It will explore the political, economic, social and security issues that its spread has created in Africa, and project future trajectories for the spread of the disease. The course will also attempt to formulate a Christian perspective on the proposed role of the church to prevent the spread of the pandemic, to provide services to minimize its affects and to minister to those infected and affected by the disease. The underlying assumption of these strategies will be to create interventions that are sustainable and community-based and have as their focal point the centrality of the local church in the areas that are most affected.

MS 934 Contemporary Missions: Issues and Strategies

MS 900 Special Studies: Tutelage
A track elective taken under the tutelage of an assigned professor of record. (In order to take this course the student must secure the approval of his/her Program Advisor.)

Dissertation Research Courses (12 credits)
MC 907, MC 908, MC 909 Dissertation Research
In preparation for the dissertation the student will enroll in three four-credit dissertation research tutorial courses designed to facilitate the research required for the proposed dissertation. The dissertation proposal will identify where each dissertation research course corresponds within the research design of the proposal. The tutorials will focus either on a review of the literature to provide the theoretical or theological foundation for the proposed research or after a brief review of precedent literature, the substance of the tutorial will be the student’s own primary research and analysis. For each course the student will present a research proposal to the assigned mentor for approval which includes research objectives, a literature review and research methodology.
Once the proposal is approved, the student will execute the research and report the findings in a format similar to a dissertation. The content of the dissertation research courses should reflect the multi-disciplinary nature of intercultural studies. (An approved dissertation proposal is required in order to enroll in these courses.)

Dissertation Course (4 credits)

MC 999 Dissertation Development

Upon the completion, acceptance and successful oral defense of a written research dissertation that advances knowledge in intercultural studies integrating theory and praxis, four credits will be recorded on the transcript. All participants working on the dissertation phase will maintain a continued registration in the program.

Qualifying Exam

The qualifying examination is intended to demonstrate an acceptable level of competency in missiology and the ability to apply the literature to a set of circumstances. Students will be eligible to take the examination upon successful completion of the following core courses:

- Core 1 – Leaders in a Global Context
- Core 2 – Missio Dei and the Contemporary World
- Core 3 – Intercultural Communication and Missions Anthropology
- Core 4 – Theological Issues, Contextualization and Area Studies

Within six months of having a passing grade posted by the registrar for these courses, the student is required to take the exam. A list of recommended readings to support competencies developed in the core courses will be provided at the beginning of the program.

The qualifying examination is composed of two exams. One exam based on the missiological content and disciplines of study introduced in the core courses one and two; the second on cores three and four. Each exam will be comprised of three questions, two summative questions developed and approved by the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Committee, one for each core course, and one context specific question selected by the committee from questions submitted by the student.

The student will submit to the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Committee two summative context specific questions for each exam (a total of four questions) which seek to integrate and apply the content of the courses to the student’s specific missional environment. If the questions are not approved, they will be returned to the student with suggestions for resubmission. If approved, the Committee will select one question for each exam. The questions for each of the two exams will be sent electronically to a preapproved proctor.

The student will make arrangements with the proctor to schedule and take the exams in an appropriate context on a computer that is not connected to the internet and contains no files related to the comprehensives. For each exam the proctor will present the three selected questions to the student who will write a response to each. Each exam should be approximately 1200 words referencing the appropriate literature (author only, bibliographic reference not required). Three hours will be allowed for each exam. The two exams are to be taken within a two week period. Upon completion of each exam the proctor will email the student’s response in electronic format to the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Committee, retain one copy as a backup and provide one copy to the student (e.g. by email, thumb
Each exam will be graded by a specialist in the field and by a generalist according to the following classifications: Superior, Satisfactory, Marginal or Unsatisfactory. Any grade of unsatisfactory by either grader or marginal by both will require retesting in that discipline/course. A marginal or unsatisfactory score by either grader on the retest will result in disqualification from the program.

Dissertation Proposal

At the conclusion of Core 5, Methods of Intercultural and Missiological Research, a formal dissertation proposal must be presented to and approved by the Intercultural Doctoral Studies Program Committee. The proposal should include dissertation title, a problem statement or thesis, research questions or hypothesis, a literature review related to the research, methodology to be employed, a description of how track, elective and dissertation research courses will be integrated in the research design, an explanation of how the findings will be reported, categories for the conclusions and recommendations, and a preliminary outline of the dissertation. With the successful completion of the qualifying exam and the approval of the dissertation proposal, the student will be assigned a guidance committee comprised of a faculty mentor and two faculty advisers whose research expertise is directly related to the projected research identified in the proposal in order to develop the study program.

Comprehensive Examination (for advancement to candidacy)

The written comprehensive examination is intended to determine competencies in the student’s area of research interest for the dissertation process. A student will be deemed ready to sit for the examination upon the completion of all required course work. A guide for the comprehensive exams will be developed by the faculty of the Global Missions Department (Intercultural Doctoral Studies faculty) and distributed to all students. It will offer examples of questions that will assist the student in his or her exam preparation and provide a detailed description of the examination’s procedure and policies. It is intended that there will be an ongoing assessment of the examination structure, including discussion of the number and range of the questions. To ensure objectivity in final grading, procedures will be in place to involve external examiners in cases where initial assessments are unclear. In the event of an unsuccessful examination, the student may have one retake. Upon successful completion of the comprehensive examination and all required course work, the student will advance to candidate status for the Ph.D./ICS and commence the writing of the dissertation.

Dissertation

A research dissertation advances knowledge in the field of study and enables the participant to integrate and apply his or her learning in an intercultural ministry context. Upon the completion, acceptance and successful oral defense of a written dissertation which makes a scholarly contribution to the discipline and practice of intercultural ministry, four credits will be recorded on the transcript.
Mission Statement

The purpose of AGTS is to train men and women to fulfill the mission of the church as taught in Scripture—Shaping servant leaders with knowledge, skill and passion to revitalize the church and evangelize the world in the power of the Spirit.

As a graduate-level educational institution within the evangelical and Pentecostal tradition, the seminary affirms the Bible as God’s written Word, the inspired, infallible and authoritative rule for faith and conduct. Affiliated with The General Council of the AG, the seminary’s doctrinal commitment is found in the Statement of Fundamental Truths.

In order to accomplish its purpose, the seminary, as a center for instruction and spiritual formation, seeks to achieve the following objectives:

1. To lead every student into a growing knowledge of God, based upon the redemptive work of Christ and the baptizing power of the Holy Spirit.
2. To perpetuate the distinctive Pentecostal proclamation of the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit to restore the people of God to the New Testament model of vitality and witness.
3. To create an environment in which men and women, who have been called and gifted for Christian service, may be nurtured as servant-leaders of sterling Christian character.
4. To seek excellence in all of its programs, believing that a rigorous quest for truth, effectiveness and relevance should characterize theological reflection and professional training.
5. To provide training in the professional skills necessary for the practice of ministry in a changing world, focusing on the preparation of pastors, missionaries, evangelists, military and institutional chaplains, teachers, counselors and others.
6. To foster an evangelistic and missionary emphasis with a global and multi-cultural perspective in order to equip men and women to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ at home and abroad.
7. To encourage constructive engagement with society guided by the prophetic and redemptive words and deeds of Jesus Christ.
8. To serve as a scholarly resource for the AG, Pentecostal-Charismatic communities worldwide and the larger body of Christ.
9. To utilize technology and distance-education methodologies in the extension of its educational mission to Christian leaders unable to attend a resident campus.

Statement of Faith

The seminary adheres to the Statement of Fundamental Truths of the AG as indicated in Article V of the Constitution and Bylaws. In summary, we believe:

.... the Bible is the inspired and only infallible and authoritative Word of God.
.... there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.
.... in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, in His personal future return to this earth in power and glory to rule a thousand years.
... in the Blessed Hope—the Rapture of the Church at Christ's coming.
... the only means of being cleansed from sin is through repentance and faith in the precious blood of Christ.
... regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for personal salvation.
... the redemptive work of Christ on the cross provides healing of the human body in answer to believing prayer.
... the baptism in the Holy Spirit, according to Acts 2:4, is given to believers who ask for it.
... in the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a holy life.
... in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost, the one to everlasting life and the other to everlasting damnation.

Pentecostal Distinctives

The AG grew out of the global revival at the turn of the twentieth century. Dedicated to the full gospel message, the Assemblies have grown to become a dynamic element of what is called the Third Force of Christianity—the Pentecostals.

The commitment to the Pentecostal dimension of Christianity is what distinguishes the AG from other groups within Evangelical Christianity. Since AGTS is the denominational seminary for the AG, the Pentecostal distinctives are central to each of its degrees and course offerings. Each member of the AGTS faculty and administration is full gospel in belief and practice. This background and heritage enables them to present biblical and theological truths, educational and missiological strategies and methods, and counseling principles within the context of the Pentecostal ministry. This Pentecostal hallmark of AGTS permeates all of its activities and programs.

History and Location

The concept of a graduate school of theology and missions was originally approved by The General Council in session at Portland, Oregon, August 1961. After lengthy and prayerful consideration, the General Presbytery, in August 1971, accepted a recommendation presented jointly by the Executive Presbytery and the Board of Education that the school be implemented. On May 18, 1972, the General Presbytery adopted a preliminary constitution and bylaws and authorized establishing the school at the International Headquarters in Springfield, Missouri. The school was incorporated in December 1972. The Executive Presbytery was authorized to serve as the Board of Directors of the Assemblies of God Graduate School. Thomas F. Zimmerman, general superintendent, was elected to serve as president.

In August of 1984, by action of the Executive Presbytery and the General Presbytery, the school was renamed the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary. In December 1985, Dr. G. Raymond Carlson, general superintendent, was appointed president, a position he held until 1986. Dr. H. Glynn Hall served as president from 1987-90. Dr. Del Tarr served as president from June 1990-1999. On July 1, 1999, the Board of Directors appointed Dr. Byron D. Klaus, who currently serves as the seminary's fifth president.

Originally located in the headquarters complex at The General Council of the AG, the seminary in August 1997 occupied a beautiful new facility on Glenstone Avenue adjacent to the Evangel University campus. Named in honor of Michael and Frances Cardone, Sr., the state-of-the-art building is entered via a spacious “Great Hall” which strategically accents the seminary’s mission with a bronze sculpture, “The Divine Servant,” and the official seal featuring the cross, the Bible and a dove to symbolize the Holy Spirit. The William J. Seymour chapel, named for the African-American leader of the 1906 Azusa Street revival, includes beautiful stained glass windows depicting the great themes of Christian faith and Pentecostal leadership. The Khoo Kay Peng World Prayer Center incorporates a circular mural celebrating the Day of Pentecost.

The building also includes comfortable classrooms, faculty and administrative offices, the Cordas C. Burnett Library, a counseling center and a computer lab for student use. A commodious patio provides a delightful setting for relaxation, study and bag lunches on sunny days.

Springfield is an enjoyable location for pursuing graduate studies with its proximity to Ozark Mountain country. Also of great significance is the seminary’s nearness to the headquarters of The General Council of the AG. Students will have many opportunities to become familiar with the operations and resources of the church. They meet and mingle with church leaders, share ideas and build relationships for a lifetime of ministry.

Library Facilities

The Cordas C. Burnett Library is the major information resource center of AGTS, incorporating both a physical resource center along with an increasingly vast array of digital resources that can reach students located throughout the world. The two-level physical facility provides students with a pleasant, quiet atmosphere and a wealth of resources for the pursuit of serious graduate study. The library has a 135,000-volume capacity and its holdings currently consist of 97,683 bound volumes, 76,395 microforms, 5,442 audiovisuals and about 340 current periodical subscriptions. These include an extensive biblical, theological and missiological collection, augmented by the Flower Pentecostal Heritage Center located at The Assemblies of God General Council headquarters in Springfield, as well as a collection of counseling resources.

The library is committed to providing quality service to AGTS students and other library patrons. Since 1978, the library has contracted for access to OCLC (Online Computer Library Center), a major worldwide computer-based cataloging bibliographic utility, through the Missouri Library Network Corporation (MLNC). The library’s cataloging and circulation services have been fully automated since the fall of 1999. As a member of the MOBIUS (Missouri Bibliographic Information User System) Consortium, the library currently utilizes the Millennium Library Automated System, a fully integrated library automated system complete with online catalog, circulation control, cataloging, acquisitions, serials control, media control and administration system.

The facility includes a computer lab, equipped with 23 personal computers, five laser printers, a color printer, two scanners and a laptop printing station for student use and provides access to productivity software, library resources and the Internet. The library has also installed multiple wireless access points, creating a wireless network accessible throughout the facilities. Through MOREnet and Springnet, AGTS provides Internet access to a number of online resources that significantly enhance the periodicals that the library offers to students and faculty by providing indexing and resource tools along with some full-text access. Online databases that AGTS students may access include: full-text databases available through EBSCOhost (the ATLA Religion Database with ATLASerials, the American Psychological Association databases [PsycINFO, PsycARTICLES, and PsycBOOKS], Educational Resources Information Center – ERIC, Family and Society Studies Worldwide and EBSCO databases such as Academic Search Elite); eHRAF (Electronic Human Relations Area Files for cross-cultural and intercultural studies); Pro Quest...
Dissertations & Theses and Psychology Journals; Gale Cengage’s Academic One File; Guide to Social Science & Religion in Periodical Literature; ATLA’s Research in Ministry (RIM) Online; Biblical Archaeology Society Online Archive; Encyclopedia Britannica Online and World Christian Database. In addition, the library also has a number of CD-ROM resources for student use that are available from some or all Student Computer Lab machines: BibleWorks, Historical Pentecostal Archives, Endnote, Citation and the Brill Encyclopaedia of Islam. The AGTS Library also provides students with online access to numerous periodical subscriptions.

The AGTS library can provide further access to materials beyond those housed in the facility by virtue of the library’s status as one of 60 MOBIUS member institutions and its participation in MOBIUS’ Common Library Platform. The CLP creates a virtual collection of the more than 21 million items contained in the libraries of MOBIUS member institutions and creates a single user interface that allows faculty and students to request library materials using any personal computer in any location with access to the Internet. Requested materials are delivered within one or two days of being requested by the MOBIUS Delivery System. Local libraries that participate in the MOBIUS CLP include Baptist Bible College, Cottey College, Crowder College, Drury University, Forest Institute of Professional Psychology, Missouri Southern State University, Missouri State University, Ozarks Technical Community College and Southwest Baptist University. The AGTS library additionally holds membership in the Assemblies of God Library Consortium and the Southwest Missouri Academic Libraries Cooperative. By virtue of these memberships, AGTS students may also borrow books from Central Bible College, College of the Ozarks, Cox College of Nursing, Evangel University, Messenger College at Joplin and Ozark Christian College. The library also offers computer-assisted interlibrary loan services through OCLC that enable patrons to borrow books from other non-Consortium libraries throughout the country.

These resources enable AGTS students to deal effectively and efficiently with their information needs. As students grow in their experience and skill, becoming more advanced in the pursuit of these needs, the library can offer virtually unlimited access to resources through the library’s online catalog, MOBIUS, OCLC, the Internet and Interlibrary Loan.

Flower Pentecostal Heritage Center

For the study of the AG and Pentecostalism, AGTS students benefit from the museum and resources housed at the Flower Pentecostal Heritage Center in the headquarters complex of the AG. The holdings focus on the history of the AG, but also include related materials on the Pentecostal, Charismatic and Evangelical traditions. The available correspondence, reports, published and unpublished histories, periodicals, news clips, personal papers, diaries, photographs, audiovisual materials (including oral histories), committee notes and minutes, memorabilia and other items make it one of the foremost archives for the study of Pentecostalism in North America. The center also publishes the quarterly Assemblies of God Heritage.

Ministerial Credentialing and Placement

The seminary is not a ministerial credentialing agency. Therefore, matriculation does not guarantee the granting of ministerial credentials or placement in a ministry position. Persons desiring to be credentialed by the AG should review the General Council Bylaws, Article VII, “Ministry,” and apply to the appropriate district council at the outset of their educational program.

Local AG congregations have the prerogative of calling their own ministers. AGTS provides some resume guidance and referral services through its Institutional and Alumni Relations Office.

Part-Time Students

Students may enroll for less than a full academic load at AGTS. Day, evening, accelerated and module sessions offer a variety of options to the part-time student.

New Student Orientation

New resident students are expected to attend the orientation session held at the beginning of their first semester attended. The purpose of orientation is to assist new students in making the transition to seminary life and studies.

Readmission

Former students seeking readmission after an absence of two consecutive semesters or more must submit a readmission form. A $15 readmission fee is required. Readmission will be subject to the review and recommendation of the Admissions Committee who may require additional information from the student.
Transfer Credit and Advanced Standing

Requests for advanced standing or transfer credit must be submitted to the registrar with official transcripts and course descriptions when applying for admission. (See specific degree programs for more information.)

Advanced Standing

Advanced standing is interpreted as those courses brought in at the beginning of the degree program. Life experience does not qualify for advanced standing. (See specific degree programs for more information.)

Transfer Credit

From Other Graduate Schools

Transfer credit may be granted for approved courses completed at accredited graduate institutions other than AGTS.

Concurrent enrollment in other graduate institutions for the purpose of transferring credits into the AGTS program must be approved in advance by the AGTS registrar and/or academic dean.

Cumulative transfer credits may not exceed one-half of the M.Div., one-half of the professional M.A., nor up to one-half of the academic M.A. (See Residency Requirement.)

Courses accepted for transfer credit are expected to be equivalent to the course descriptions in the AGTS catalog and to appropriately fit the degree program being pursued.

The minimum grade acceptable is C from accredited schools (B from nonaccredited schools if approved by the seminary).

Transfer Credit From Completed AGTS Degree

Shared credit may be granted for a degree completed at AGTS to be applied toward another degree at the seminary.

• M.A. to M.Div.: Up to 24 of an academic M.A.; up to 30 of the professional M.A.
• M.Div. to M.A.: Up to 24 toward the academic M.A.; up to 30 toward the professional M.A.

The courses must be applicable toward the degree being pursued to be approved.

Toward M.Div. Equivalency for Doctoral Studies

For further information, see D.Min., M.Div. Equivalency.

Toward Doctor of Ministry

Up to six of the doctoral transfer credits may be accepted from ATS/CHEA accredited institutions or those recognized by an approved foreign accrediting body. Students must have earned a grade of “B” or higher.
Toward Doctor of Missiology and Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies

Up to eight of the doctoral transfer credits may be accepted from ATS/CHEA accredited institutions of those recognized by an approved foreign accrediting body. Students must have earned a grade “B” or higher. If a person holds an earned doctorate in a related field (e.g. Doctor of Ministry), a maximum of 12 credits may be transferred to the Ph.D.

Transfer Credits and Advanced Standing Limitation

In preparing for graduation, the student must satisfy the residency requirement. The combined total of credits received for transfer credit, advanced standing (if applicable) and credit earned through distance learning courses or directed research cannot exceed the limitations imposed by the residency requirement (see Residency Requirement).

Transfer of Credits to Other Institutions

Accredited seminaries and graduate schools normally reciprocate in the transfer of credits that satisfy requirements of their respective degree programs. Students should remember; however, that transfer of credit is always at the discretion of the receiving institution. It is the student’s responsibility to confirm whether or not credits will be accepted by another institution of the student’s choice.
Course Descriptions

Course Numbering

Course descriptions are listed by academic department. The list is subject to change as the seminary deems appropriate.

All course offerings are graduate level with the exception of the 300-400 series.

Resident courses are worth two or three credits unless stated otherwise in the description. (Continuing education classes are two-three dependent upon module format.)

Each course is designated by a letter-number combination (e.g., BNT 533). The letters denote the area of study. When applicable, a fourth letter will be added to the prefix to delineate: “E”—continuing education class; “I”—distance learning; “M”—resident module class.

Cross-listed courses allow the student to select the prefix applicable to the degree pursued.

The course numbers denote the following:
- 300 and 400 series—preparatory courses, no graduate credit granted.
- 500 series—normally a first-year graduate course.
- 600 and 700 series—normally a second or third year graduate course.
- 800 series—master's level and directed research studies.
- 900 series—doctoral level studies.

Bible and Theology Department

The Bible is the ultimate authority for evangelical Christians to judge doctrine, experience and practice. Therefore, the study of Scripture occupies a strategic place in the curriculum of the seminary. At the core of the Bible offerings are the biblical theology and biblical exegesis courses which enable students of the Bible at the graduate level to enhance their interpretative skills and to draw out principles applicable to their lives and ministries today.

Systematic and historical theology courses provide the context necessary for developing a truly balanced Pentecostal and Charismatic ministry of the Word.

The Bible and Theology Department seeks to equip both practitioners and academicians to properly handle the Scripture and theology, using all the best tools and resources under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Distance Learning Courses

Purpose

Distance Learning Courses provide the opportunity to study selected subjects at a distance without attending classes. Individuals taking a distance learning course use a set of required textbooks, lectures in a variety of multimedia formats, a study guide and a set of specific course assignments, including examinations and the preparation of course papers. AGTS utilizes independent study curricula produced by the Institute of Theological Studies (ITS) and others. Each course, however, is approved by the faculty of AGTS and course evaluation and grading are under their supervision.

Distance Learning Courses—enable individuals to earn credits toward a graduate degree without traveling to any of the participating campuses. Participants study selected subjects through lectures on audio CD, video, DVD and online courses supplemented by directed reading and research assignments, under the direction of faculty mentors. As many as one-third of the required credits for the resident degree programs and up to one-half of the required credits for the continuing education degree programs may be earned through distance learning or directed research (other advanced standing credit may limit the number of allowable hours).

Enrollment

Distance Learning Courses are intended primarily for individuals enrolled in AGTS continuing education and in-service programs or for prospective participants who choose to complete foundational degree requirements before arrival on campus. Resident participants may utilize these courses, with approval of the registrar, to resolve course conflicts. Unclassified participants may also enroll for distance learning courses.

1. Formal admission to the seminary is required before graduate credit can be awarded.
2. Registration is started through the Office of Continuing Education.
3. Courses are to be completed within 15 weeks upon receipt of the course materials. In the event extreme circumstances have prevented a student from completing the course work, he/she may request an extension from the AGTS faculty mentor. Two extensions may be given if the maximum time for course completion does not exceed nine months from the original start date. If the course work is not completed within the nine-month limit, an automatic grade of “WD” will be posted on the participant’s transcript. This policy is applicable for all participants. Exceptions must be approved by the academic dean.

Federal Loan Programs

The federal loan programs listed are available to AGTS students. To be eligible, a student must be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national or an eligible noncitizen. Students must also be in compliance with the Selective Service, not owe a refund or be in default to any Title IV program.

FAFSA Form

All students interested in determining their eligibility for Federal loan programs or Federal work study positions are required to complete a FAFSA application (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). This is a federally approved need analysis which determines the student’s financial need to attend AGTS. Forms are available from the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA website (www.fafsa.ed.gov).

A brochure will also be provided that discusses the various types of financial aid available. Changes in these programs are at the discretion of federal and state governments.

Federal Perkins Loan

There is a limited amount of funds available for this need-based, low interest (5%) loan. Repayment is to AGTS, based upon a ten-year period. The loan limit is $3,000 per year, divided between two semesters. This loan may change the Federal Stafford Student Loan amount for which a student may qualify.

Student must be enrolled at least half-time (6 credits per semester) and complete the FAFSA form and AGTS Financial Aid Application.

Upon approval, student receives an official award letter to be signed, and one copy returned to AGTS. Each award also requires a signed Perkins Promissory Notes which when signed obligates the student to repay the loan as agreed. Repayment does not begin until nine months after graduation, upon termination of program either by the student or school, or if enrollment drops below half-time status.

Federal Stafford Loan

This loan enables an eligible graduate student to borrow up to $8,500 per scheduled-based academic year (fall, spring, summer). Loans are made through an outside lender, and the federal government pays interest while the student is at school in at least half-time status (six credits per semester). A student may borrow if his cost of attendance allows. Repayment begins six months after graduation, termination of school program by either the student or school, or dropping below the half-time status (six credits per semester). The interest rate is variable with a 8.25% cap for new borrowers.

To apply for the Subsidized Federal Stafford Loan, students are required to submit the FAFSA, AGTS Financial Aid Application, Stafford Loan Application, and any other forms requested by AGTS.

Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loan

This loan enables an eligible graduate student to borrow up to $18,500 per scheduled-based academic year (fall, spring, summer) less any Subsidized Stafford Loan Award. Loans are made through an outside lender, and the federal government does NOT pay any interest.

Interest accrues from the date of disbursement and will be capitalized by the lender unless paid by the student while in school. Principal payments begin immediately but may be deferred for students who are enrolled at least half-time. The interest rate is variable with a 8.25% cap.

To apply for the Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loan, students are required to submit the FAFSA, AGTS Financial Aid Application, Stafford Loan Application, and any other forms requested by AGTS.

Federal College Work-Study

This award provides a few on-campus jobs for students with financial need. Enrollment of at least half-time (six credits per semester) is required. The amount awarded depends upon calculated financial need and availability of federal funds granted to AGTS.

College Work-Study provides jobs for students in various offices and departments on campus. The average job is 20 hours per week. To apply, the FAFSA form is necessary. The College Work-Study form must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office. If eligible, the student will be notified in an award letter. (See Financial Registration for corroborating information.)

Entrance and Exit Interviews

Students receiving a Federal Stafford Student Loan, a Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan or Perkins Loan are required by the federal government to attend entrance and exit interviews. The entrance interview must occur before receiving any loan funds. The exit interview is required when withdrawing, dropping below half-time or graduating from AGTS. Contact the Financial Aid Office for details.

Debt Load

The goal of AGTS is to provide financial aid to all students in a fair and equitable way. When borrowing money for a seminary education, AGTS encourages borrowing conservatively so that future plans and opportunities for ministry are not limited or curtailed because of a high debt load.

Loan Deferments

Student may receive deferments of undergraduate loans while attending AGTS. Federal regulations stipulate specific requirements for eligibility and AGTS serves only as that certifying agent. Please contact the Financial Aid Office for further information.
Withdrawal and Financial Aid Refund Policy

AGTS abides by the following fair and equitable refund policies for Title IV programs which refunds students for unearned tuition and fees for periods of time if the student withdraws or fails to complete the period of enrollment.

Withdrawal Procedure

Students who withdraw from AGTS are required to complete individual Withdrawal from Class forms for each course, and the Withdrawal from Seminary form.

Financial Aid Refund Policy

(Applies only to students receiving federal financial aid who drop to less than half-time status or who totally withdraw from seminary)

Students who withdraw completely from the seminary or who drop to less than halftime status prior to completing at least 60% of the semester or payment period must repay all of the unearned portion of the federal aid received. The amount of federal aid earned is determined by the number of days enrolled at AGTS within the semester or payment period up to 60% of that semester. The number of days a student is not enrolled equals the unearned portion of the semester or payment period. This amount will be returned to the lender and the student must make arrangements in the Business Office for repayment of these funds. If a student is enrolled for at least 60% of the semester or payment period, he/she has earned 100% of the federal funds received. For detailed information about the Federal Withdrawal Policy, see the Financial Aid Office.

Satisfactory Progress Standards For Financial Aid Recipients

See the current AGTS Student Handbook online at www.agts.edu for policy on “Satisfactory Progress Standards for Financial Aid Recipients.”
Academic Policies and Procedures

Introduction

While attending AGTS, it will be necessary to become familiar with details and procedures relative to academic policies and procedures for master’s programs.

In the section that follows, some situations have been anticipated and procedures or policies described.

Catalog

When admitted to AGTS, the student is subject to the requirements in the catalog which is current at the time of initial enrollment, rather than the catalog that was current when applying for admission. The catalog is updated annually and published on the internet. The catalog can be downloaded in PDF file or requested in CD or printed formats.

Students who interrupt their studies and are out more than two semesters must formally apply for readmission and may be subject to the requirements of the catalog which is current in the semester when reenrolled.

Student Handbook

Detailed information regarding registration, financial aid, and other academic matters is contained in the resident AGTS Student Handbook (see www.agts.edu).

Nonresident students enrolled in the continuing education program should secure the handbook prepared for them from the Office of Continuing Education.

Fitness For Ministry

As a theological seminary whose primary mission is the preparation of men and women for the service of the Church, AGTS is committed to the personal and professional growth of all students and reserves the right to require the following of all students, either as a part of their classroom experience or as a part of their personal and professional development:

1. The completion of one or more personality and assessment inventories which become a part of the student’s seminary file. These inventories may be utilized in academic, personal, and professional guidance counseling.
2. Periodic reviews of the student’s academic and personal growth may be required to assist in his or her adjustment to seminary life and his or her fitness for ministry as an ordained clergyperson or professional. The student may be required to undergo counseling at his or her own expense or enter into particular growth contracts to address specific fitness for ministry concerns.
3. A final review before graduation may be required to insure that all contractual expectations regarding fitness for ministry have been met.
The seminary reserves the right to suspend a student for a stipulated period of time to address specific emotional and behavioral fitness for ministry issues, or to dismiss the student with no hope of readmission if it is concluded that candidacy for ministry or other helping professions is not viable at this time.

Academic Advisers

The adviser-advisee relationship is important to the seminary's curriculum. Each student will be assigned a faculty adviser. In keeping with the requirements of each program, the adviser assists the student in planning the initial academic program, keeping in mind the student's background as well as professional goals. The adviser, chairperson, and academic dean will be available for counsel in academic, vocational, and spiritual matters. Each student is responsible for completing the requirements of the degree program maintained by the Registrar's Office.

Academic Status

A student will remain in good academic standing at the seminary if maintaining a satisfactory grade point average (2.0, M.Div.; 2.5-3.0, M.A.; 3.0, D.Min.; 3.0, D.Miss.; 3.0, Ph.D.), meeting financial obligations to the seminary, conducting personal life with spiritual and moral integrity. No student will be considered to have made satisfactory progress when failing or withdrawing from all courses taken in a semester. The administration reserves the right to dismiss any student whose academic, financial, spiritual, moral integrity is unsatisfactory or unacceptable.

Exceptions to Academic Policies

Requests by students for exceptions to academic policies and regulations should first be submitted to the appropriate faculty member, department chairperson, academic dean or the registrar. Requests should be in written form and submitted well in advance of the particular requirement or deadline change requested. In the event the request is a matter that must be determined by the Academic Affairs Committee, the written request should be submitted to the registrar.

Academic Probation

A student may be admitted to the seminary on academic probation in either of the following circumstances: 1) Due to nonacademic strengths in the applicant's file, the student has been admitted with a low undergraduate grade point average; 2) The student received a baccalaureate degree from a nonaccredited institution. In such cases, the probationary status may be removed upon completion of 9-12 credits with a satisfactory gpa (2.0, M.Div.; 2.5-3.0, M.A.; 3.0, D.Min.; 3.0, D.Miss.; 3.0, Ph.D.). A student may not register for more than 12 credits until satisfactorily completing the probation period.

Students admitted to the seminary on academic probation who are pursuing master's level studies will be required to register for the 1-credit Academic Writing course during the first semester of study (contact the Registrar's Office).

A student will be placed on academic probation at the conclusion of any semester in which the cumulative grade point average falls below the requirement.
grade point average falls below the required grade point necessary to maintain satisfactory academic progress in the degree program being pursued, and will remain on probation as long as the cumulative grade point average remains below the level required. A student may also be placed on probation at the conclusion of any semester in which the semester GPA is not earned. Note: In unusual circumstances, the academic dean may, at his discretion, simply issue a letter of warning.

A written letter of appeal must be submitted to the Academic Affairs Committee following the first semester a student is either placed or retained (if admitted) on academic probation. The letter should include 1) an explanation of any exceptional circumstances that contributed to the student’s unsatisfactory academic progress, along with supporting documentation, if applicable, 2) how the circumstances have changed and 3) the steps the student will take and/or has taken to improve academic performance.

Students on academic probation who do not raise their cumulative average to the required level or higher by the end of two semesters, or do not make a substantial reduction in grade point deficiencies while on probation, will be academically dismissed from the seminary. An exception on this policy will require approval by the Academic Affairs Committee before enrolling for further studies the next semester.

Students who have been academically dismissed and who have not been enrolled for at least one or more semesters may seek readmission to the seminary. In those cases, the Admissions Committee will consider applications for readmission to the seminary after academic dismissal only if readmission is warranted by exceptional circumstances and reasonable grounds are given for an expectation that the student can remove grade point deficiencies. Such appeals will require the approval of the Admissions Committee and academic dean before the student can be readmitted and register for classes. If approved for readmission, no student will be permitted to enroll until one semester (15 weeks) has elapsed following the student’s dismissal.

Students on academic probation may be required to review employment and other commitments with their academic adviser.

Writing Improvement Program

1. Students admitted on probation may be required by the Admissions Committee or Academic Dean to take a course in Academic Writing as a condition for admission.

2. Students who have been placed on academic probation will be required to take a course on Academic Writing the semester immediately following their unsatisfactory academic progress.

3. If a student demonstrates insufficient writing skills for graduate-level studies, any professor may require him or her to take a course in Academic Writing.

Class Attendance

Each instructor sets class attendance policies as announced in the course syllabus. Barring a serious emergency, credit cannot be granted for courses in which a student has been absent beyond 20% of the class time. The professor’s individual attendance policy may be stricter. Exceeding the absence limits shall be regarded as an unofficial withdrawal and result in a grade of F.
Degree Changes

A student desiring to change to another degree program must first receive counseling from the currently assigned academic adviser. If the degree program is mutually agreed upon, the student must obtain the proper form from the Registrar’s Office and secure the required signatures (fee: $15). If the degree program change is approved, the student must complete all requirements of the new degree program as currently stated in the catalog without course substitutions.

Exception: Students who have been accepted for admission but have not yet registered for classes should submit a written request for a change of degree to the Enrollment Office.

Degree Time Limits

Students are expected to complete the requirements for their degree under the catalog in effect at the time of initial degree candidacy. They may elect to meet modifications in the program announced in subsequent catalogs with the approval of the academic dean.

All requirements for the D.Min. degree must be completed within six years. Requirements for the M.Div. degree must be completed within seven years from the date of initial admission to degree candidacy. Requirements for the Master of Arts degree must be completed within six years. Exception: Active missionaries may complete their degree within 10 years.

Degree Residency Requirement

All degrees require resident studies at AGTS (or, in some cases, an AGTS extension site). Minimal residency requirements, normally at the end of the degree program, are as follows:

- M.Div.
- M.A. (professional)
- M.A. (academic)
- M.A. (continuing education)

one-third of degree program
one-half of degree program
one-half of degree program
one-half of degree AGTS branch campus

Registration for Classes

Students must register for classes in the Registrar’s Office on the days and hours designated. Current students should register earlier (see Academic Calendar for dates).

The registration process includes obtaining registration materials, conferring with the faculty adviser, securing approval of course selections, completing financial arrangements, the implementation of the student’s class schedule, and the receiving of student identification materials. Course changes may be made after initial registration (see Course Changes).

Students who have not been formally accepted for admission prior to registration day may be required to register late for classes. Admission clearance must first be secured from the director of enrollment management.

link to index
Late Registration

A late registration fee will be assessed to students who are unable to register during the designated registration period. Late students should notify the Registrar’s Office in advance when possible so that special arrangements may be made to register.

Students are not permitted to register for credit in any course after the deadline for each semester or accelerated summer session designated in the calendar.

Course Changes

Students may drop/add courses any time after their initial registration until the semester begins. Course changes will continue to be accepted through the first two weeks of the semester (two to three days for summer sessions and modules). See the calendar for exact dates. In no case will a student be permitted to drop/add courses after the deadline denoted in the academic calendar.

To make a course change, obtain the proper form in the Registrar’s Office, secure the required signatures, and return it to that office. (Fee: $6)

Course Credit

Courses taken in resident study at the seminary are worth three credits unless indicated differently in the course description. Some courses taken through the continuing education program are two credits.

Courses may be audited at one-fourth the tuition rate.

Course Load

The average full-time course load for the master’s programs at AGTS is nine to 12 credits. The maximum full-time resident course loads are as follows: fall or spring semester, 15 credits; first summer session, six credits; second summer session, six credits; post summer session, three credits; or module sessions, six credits. Note: Regardless of the configuration of courses taken, no student may take more than 15 credits per semester.

Students must take a minimum of nine credits-to be considered full time. Students working 20 hours or more should not take more than nine credits.

Class Scheduling

Course offerings are presented with flexibility in order to accommodate ministers, missionaries, and persons who cannot arrange their schedules for prolonged periods of time. A 4-4-1-1 calendar year is observed.

The fall and spring semesters consist of 15 weeks each. The summer semester consists of accelerated sessions of varying lengths. (See Academic Calendar for dates.)
Resident classes are usually held throughout the day on Tuesday through Friday and in the evening on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Classes may occasionally be scheduled on Mondays or weekends. During the summer sessions, classes meet on Mondays as well.

Withdrawal From Classes

A student who desires to withdraw from any class must secure approval. To withdraw from a class the proper form should be obtained in the Registrar’s Office, the required signatures secured, and the form returned immediately.

Students withdrawing from all courses for which they are enrolled should refer to the procedure for Withdrawal from seminary.

No refund of tuition or fees will be granted after the third week of a semester (three to six days for summer sessions and modules). Students receiving financial aid should refer to Financial Aid Refund Policy.

Grades for official withdrawals will be withdrawn passing or failing. After the eleventh week (third week during five-week summer sessions, first week during two-week session and modules), an automatic grade of WF will be given unless extenuating circumstances warrant special consideration. A nonexcused absence of two consecutive weeks (three days summer sessions and modules) shall be regarded as an unofficial withdrawal and result in a grade of F.

Withdrawal From Seminary

A student who desires to withdraw from seminary must secure a withdrawal form in the Registrar’s Office and schedule an exit interview with the director of spiritual formation prior to completion of the form. Instructions are printed on the form advising the student to file the form with that office after the necessary signatures are obtained. The student’s I.D. card must be returned with the form. Refunds and adjustments to the student’s account are governed by the Financial Information section of the AGTS catalog.

Failure to withdraw officially from seminary will result in automatic failing grades in the courses for which the student is enrolled and possible refusal of reentry.

Official withdrawals are graded the same as withdrawal from classes.
Grading

Grades are issued three times yearly: December for the fall semester, May for spring classes, and August for summer sessions. Master of Arts students are required to maintain a 2.5-3.0 cumulative gpa, M.Div. students a 2.0, and D.Min/D.Miss./Ph.D. participants a 3.0. (See Academic Probation.)

Grading System

AGTS uses a 4-point grading scale. Grades are assigned the following numerical values for the purpose of computing the grade point average:

D.Min. grading scale (See Doctor of Ministry, Grading.)
D.Miss. grading scale (See Doctor of Missiology, Grading.)
Ph.D./ICS grading scale (See Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies, Grading.)

One credit equals one class hour per week for 15 weeks (summer and accelerated sessions are based on equivalent numbers of contact hours).
INCOMPLETE GRADES
Students are expected to complete all course work as specified by the instructor by the end of the semester. An incomplete may be given at the option of the instructor and only under extenuating circumstances. In the event the instructor grants a grade of incomplete, he/she will have the option of lowering the final grade for the course one letter grade lower than it would have been had the work been submitted on time.

If an incomplete is received, all course work must be submitted by the date specified by the instructor (not to exceed later than two weeks before the end of the following semester). An automatic grade of failure will be issued if the work is not submitted. No student will be permitted to begin courses in a new semester if carrying more than two incomplete courses. Note: A $30 fee will be charged to the student’s account for every grade change even if the instructor has approved an extension for completing the work. Any exception to the policy will be made by the registrar.

Repeating Courses
When failing a required course (or earning a D in an admission prerequisite course where a C is required), the student may petition the academic dean for approval to repeat the course.

If the course is successfully repeated, the new grade rather than the F (or D) will be used in calculating the student’s gpa. However, the F or D will remain on the transcript.

Transcripts
Official transcripts are issued only upon written authorization by the student. The Registrar’s Office must be notified at least one week in advance if the transcript is to be issued by a given date (fee: $4). Each student receives a complimentary transcript upon graduating. No transcript will be issued for any student indebted to the seminary.

All courses taken at AGTS, including first-year Greek and other prerequisites, are averaged into the student’s grade point average and will appear on the transcript. However, when determining the student’s eligibility for graduation, with regard to the minimum gpa requirement, only those courses applicable toward the student’s degree program will be considered in calculating the gpa.

Graduation Requirements
Students must register for graduation no later than January 31 through the Registrar’s Office.

Graduation requirements include the following:

1. Satisfactorily complete all degree program requirements. (See Academic Program for exact requirements.)
2. Maintain a degree grade point average of at least 2.5-3.0 (M.A.), 2.0 (M.Div.) or 3.0 (D.Min./D.Miss./Ph.D.) and be a student in good standing at the seminary. (See Academic Status)
3. Satisfy specific degree program graduation requirements (e.g., comprehensive examination, analytical reflection paper, field education research project).
4. If a student has been approved to register for a course(s) for the purpose of transfer credit back to his or her degree program at AGTS, grades for that course(s) must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by February 15 of the student’s graduation year.
5. All masters-level graduates must satisfactorily complete the Graduating Student Questionnaire. (Contact the Academic Dean's Office if you have any questions.)
6. A final review before graduation may be required to insure that all contractual expectations regarding fitness for ministry have been met. (See Fitness for Ministry.)
7. Receive approval for graduation from the Academic Affairs Committee and Faculty.
8. Attend the commencement exercises (approval to be absent must be secured from the Academic Affairs Committee through the registrar by April 1).

Commencement is held once each year (See Academic Calendar) Students completing requirements during the summer months will participate in commencement but will not be eligible to receive recognition for honors until grades are posted in August.

Continuing Education graduates are encouraged to participate in graduation exercises at AGTS. Approval to participate at the branch site where the majority of their course work was completed must be secured through the AGTS Registrar's Office. Commencement dates will vary according to location.

Students are personally responsible for following the course requirements for timely completion of their respective degrees and for confirming with the Registrar's Office to insure that these requirements are satisfied. The requirements are published in the catalog under which the student matriculates or is readmitted. Suggested course-sequencing guides for degree programs are available in each department and utilized at registration. AGTS faculty advisers and staff are available to provide guidance in course scheduling but do not assume final responsibility for each student's enrollment decisions. The published requirements of each degree prevail except for occasional and appropriate exceptions approved by the academic dean.

The degree earned is recorded on the transcript at the end of the semester in which all the degree requirements are completed. The last day of the semester as indicated by the academic calendar is considered to be the official graduation date. Diplomas will not be distributed prior to commencement (see Tuition and Fees for fee).

Honors

Academic Honors

The following standards for honors are maintained:

| 3.90-4.0  | Summa cum laude |
| 3.80-3.89 | Magna cum laude |
| 3.70-3.79 | Cum laude |

These standards were implemented beginning with the graduating class of 1995. Honors cannot be posted retroactively before that date.

Eligible summer graduates must postpone this honor at commencement until all grades are processed at which time it will be posted on the transcript.
Honor Society

A limited number of graduates are elected into the Kappa Delta Chi Honor Society each year by the faculty. (See AGTS Student Handbook for details.)
Student Life and Services

The Springfield Community

Seminary Location

AGTS is located in the northern section of Springfield, Missouri's third largest city. The quality of life is bolstered by a cost of living that rates 7.5 points below the national average. The area's pleasant climate is complemented by its clean air and makes Springfield a desirable place to live.

Located in Ozark Mountain country, Springfield affords an exciting variety of cultural and sporting events, plus a wide range of recreational activities. Six major lakes lie within a short driving distance, providing a comfortable setting for fellowship, relaxation, and renewal.

Seminary Campus

Campus Location

The seminary community enjoys a 58,000 sq. ft. academic building that houses state of the art classrooms, the Cordas C. Burnett Library, computer lab, bookstore, counseling center, William J. Seymour Chapel, Khoo Kay Peng World Prayer Center, and administrative offices. The campus has recently expanded with the acquisition of the historical O'Reilly Gymnasium which is now being utilized by the seminary as a multipurpose activity center. The campus is adjacent to Evangel University on North Glenstone Avenue.

Campus Visits

We welcome prospective students to visit AGTS whenever they are in the area or in the process of deciding where to attend seminary. If the Enrollment Office knows about the visit, they will arrange a tour of the seminary, consultations with faculty, staff and students, attendance in classes of interest, and guest housing. Call 1-800-467-AGTS.

Employment

For students and spouses who are interested in securing either full- or part-time employment while at AGTS, the seminary maintains a list of local employment opportunities which is available upon request. A limited number of jobs are available on campus and students interested in work-study positions should complete the necessary application forms in the Financial Aid Office. There are numerous off-campus employment opportunities and most students and spouses seeking work generally find employment. While the area has slightly lower pay scales compared to some cities, these are usually offset by the lower cost of living.

Housing

The seminary does not own or provide housing, but there are many apartments and houses for rent in the city. The Enrollment Office produces a local housing list for students seeking accommodations. This list is maintained on a regular basis and is available upon request. Students are encouraged not to wait until August to make housing arrangements. Each fall there is an influx of approximately 28,000 students attending 14 educational institutions in the Springfield area that reduces housing availability.
The Seminary Community

Student Life Department

AGTS is more than a “seminary.” It is a “community” of seekers and learners bound together by the common cause of Christ. We recognize that education does not take place exclusively in the classroom and that community life at AGTS enhances the student’s overall seminary experience. Consequently, AGTS takes seriously its role in helping students to be prepared as whole persons who are called to various forms of ministry in the world. The Student Life Department exists to support the student community by providing services, programs and activities which contribute to student development in the social, personal, and spiritual as well as academic areas of life.

Spiritual Formation

Chapel Services

To promote the spiritual life of the community, mid-morning chapel services are held Tuesday through Friday. Faculty, staff, students, and speakers from off-campus contribute to these services which provide the opportunity for corporate worship in the midst of the daily academic activities. At AGTS, we consider these daily chapel gatherings to be a vital aspect of one’s seminary experience for they foster an atmosphere conducive to spiritual growth. While attendance is not required, students are encouraged not to miss these opportunities for spiritual refreshing, encouragement, and growth.

Covenant Groups

The seminary seeks to promote fellowship through community accountability groups. One day each week the chapel hour is reserved for these small groups where students meet together with faculty and administrators for prayer, Bible study, sharing of concerns, and discussion of topics of interest.

Prayer Groups

Various student and faculty prayer groups meet at specific times during the semester—often before classes, during the noon hour, and some evenings. Some pray for the work of God in various locations of the world, others pray for revival and salvation for the lost, and others pray for our seminary community or specific areas of interest.

Chapel Lectureship Series

During the fall and spring semesters special guest lecturers come to the campus to address topics of interest to seminarians. Past lecturers have included:

- Miriam Adeney, “World Christian Connections”
- Len Bartlotti, “The Gift of Apostleship”
- Alice Curtis, Donald Johns, and Bryan Sanders, “Ministry of Conflict Resolution in the Church”
- Richard Dresselhaus, “Ministry, Management, and Mediation”
- Stanley Grenz, “What Does It Mean to Be Trinitarians”
- Paul Hiebert, “Missions”
- Steven Land, “Pentecostal Spirituality and Leadership”
- Sherwood Lingenfelter, “Transforming Culture”
- Frank Macchia, “Life in the Spirit”
- Russell Spittler, “Marks of Christian Community”
• Siang-Yang Tan, “The Holy Spirit in Counseling”
• Ingrid Trobisch, “Family Life”
• Grant Wacker, “Exploring the Everyday Lives of Early Pentecostals”
• Maurice Watson, “Proclamation: A Kingdom Imperative”
• George Wood, “Pastoral Leadership”

Student Organizations

Student Advisory Council
The seminary has an active Student Advisory Council (SAC) elected by the student body annually. The council coordinates projects and activities that enhance student life, oversees a variety of student ministries groups, and serves as a liaison between the student body and faculty and administration. The SAC president serves on the seminary’s Board of Administration.

International Students Association
AGTS is blessed to have students from around the globe studying on our campus. We believe that students from various cultures contribute significantly to the community. The diversity that comes from their experiences enhances our environment of faith and learning. To better serve these students AGTS has an international students association. The objectives of the association are to provide fellowship among AGTS international students, promote international cultural understanding, encourage participation in group activities, and assist new international students in adjusting to seminary life. The Student Life Office coordinates occasional multi-cultural activities to facilitate fellowship for international students.

Women’s Fellowship
The AGTS Women’s Fellowship, Klasis, exists to build friendships among the women in the seminary community and others interested in serving the cause of higher Christian education; to provide programs of enrichment to the members; to facilitate prayer and support groups; and to provide assistance to students and the seminary.

Bookstore
AGTS Students are able to purchase textbooks, reference works and supplies at the Founders Bookstore at Evangel University. It is located on the first floor in the Student Union Building at Evangel University and can be reached by telephone at 417.865.2815 ext.7343. The regular bookstore hours are M-F 9AM – 6PM, Sat 10AM – 2PM. Hours for the week of August 23rd-26th are M-F 7:30AM – 6:00PM, Sat-10 AM – 2:00PM.

Food Services
While AGTS does not provide cafeteria food services, there are many local eating establishments within close proximity to the seminary. In addition, several vending machines and kitchen facilities are provided in the student lounge.

Health Insurance
Students are strongly encouraged to make arrangements to provide health insurance coverage for themselves and their families. Policy requires international students to carry health insurance while enrolled at the seminary. Contact the Business Office or the Enrollment Office for further information.
Student Handbook

A student handbook is available to all students and can be accessed on the AGTS website www.agts.edu. A copy can be downloaded free of charge in the AGTS computer lab. The handbook provides detailed policies, privileges, and procedures for academic and student life. Updates and revisions to the handbook are made on a regular basis. The monthly campus newsletter, the Communiqué, also serves to keep students informed of updates in procedures and policies.

Lifestyle

As Christians, the seminary strives to maintain high standards of integrity in all areas of life including interpersonal and community relationships, academic work, and ministry. Students, faculty, and staff are expected to live exemplary Christian lives, practicing respect and concern for all people, honesty, appropriate behavior, and wise judgment as outlined in Scripture.

Believing that all persons are created in God's image and that the body of a believer in Christ is the temple of the Holy Spirit, the seminary interprets the Bible to forbid fornication, adultery, homosexuality, use of pornography, drunkenness, and use of illegal drugs. Seminary policy prohibits the use of alcohol and tobacco while enrolled at AGTS.

Seminary students are expected to conform to these standards, thereby giving evidence of a Christian life and character so as to commend the Gospel, strengthen the Church, and honor the Lord.

Placement Assistance

Faculty and administration frequently work directly with church leaders and graduates in securing professional appointments.

Accommodations for Students with Physical Disabilities

AGTS complies with the regulations of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Sec. 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). Inquiries or complaints concerning the application of Sec. 504 or the ADA may be referred to the academic dean or the director of student services.

Accommodations for Students with Learning Disabilities

A student with learning disabilities may request academic assistance during their time of study at AGTS. In such cases, the student is required to provide official documentation (medical, educational, etc.) of the disability, along with all records pertaining to academic assistance provided by any previous institution(s). Documentation may be submitted to the director of admissions and records and must be provided at least thirty days prior to the beginning of the semester for which accommodations are requested. After the documentation is reviewed by the administrative committee, the student will be advised of the committee’s determination.

Map to AGTS

We highly recommend that prospective students plan to visit AGTS. A visit allows you to meet our students, faculty and staff, sit in on classes and get a feel for the community. We would be glad to offer tours, set up appointments, send class schedules and even put you up for two nights in the home of a current student. We ask that you provide us with at least two week’s notice if accommodations are desired. To schedule your visit in advance, call us at 800-467-AGTS or 417-268-1000. We look forward to having you on campus.

AGTS is located in Springfield, MO, in the south-central part of the state. Springfield is serviced by its own regional airport and bus terminal. Situated along I-44, Springfield is approximately three hours from the airports of Tulsa, St. Louis and Kansas City. The campus is located on the corner of Glenstone and Division, next to Evangel University. We would be happy to provide you with a complimentary map of the city.
