New Faculty and Guests for Summer 2007

Special Guest Faculty

Dr. Charlie Self (B.A., M.A., Ph.D. University of California at Santa Cruz; M.A., Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley) is teaching at AGTS again this summer. A scholar of great breadth and remarkable popular energy, he has always served as a pastor while pursuing an impressive academic career. He has also distinguished himself as an author and public communicator. He is known as “Dr. History” for his regular appearances on the Brian Sussman talk-radio show on KSFO 560 AM in San Francisco, in which he “provides humorous and insightful facts to guide the perplexed toward sanity.” He is also a professor at Western Theological Seminary and will be teaching PHI 631M/THEM 628 Apologetics in modular format at AGTS on May 21-25. Sparkling intellect and a great sense of humor never hurt a summer class. Charlie will be an ideal coach in helping you sharpen your skills in presenting an intelligent defense of Christianity before the challenge of postmodern society.

Dr. Wave Nunnally (B.A., Mississippi College, M.A., Institute of Holy Land Studies, Jerusalem; M.A., Reformed Theological Seminary; M.Phil., Ph.D. Hebrew Union College) is a legendary Hebrew teacher from right next door at Evangel University. He has a strong record of creating a passion in students for Biblical Hebrew that carries them to a strong reading knowledge of the language. Don't miss the chance to take Hebrew from one of its best teachers in the United States. To get a better deal, you'll have to go to Israel. Note: First-year Hebrew is offered at AGTS only in the summer.
